Board Votes Retirement Plan Despite Delaying Efforts

By RANDALL GOULD

Marin County Supervisors by a 3-2 vote today approved a plan for retirement of county employees over vigorous minority efforts to delay decision.

The action overruled recommendations of the county administrator for alternative action incorporating federal Social Security "as part of the gross retirement benefit package."

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said a majority of private business retirement plans regard Social Security as "a foundation stone" of their programs. He termed the so-called "fixed formula" plan supported by the retirement board, and finally passed by a supervisorial majority, "excessive in cost to the taxpayers."

"We needn't take an irrevocable step," said Leydecker, "just because there are a couple of problems about a reasonable integrated system."

Supervisor Peter Behr concurred that "we have a responsibility to the employees but also to the taxpayer."

"Why Lock ourselves in," said Behr," and all future boards as well, in what is a disservice to the taxpayer? If we act in haste, there will be decades to repent at leisure."

Chairman William D. Fusselma nsaid he didn't agree that the action comprised a permanent lock-in though Behr declared that if the fixed formula plan were adopted by resolution "any change thereafter must be upward and cannot be downward."

A letter from Asst. Administrator John F. Barrows advocated consideration of Social Security as part of the income of retired county employees.

County Treasurer Stanley J. Fontez wrote for the Marin County employees' retirement board in favor of the fixed formula scheme, to be effective Oct. 1 as provided by an accompanying resolution.

Leydecker professed himself "utterly confused" by apparent factual contradictions in the arguments.

He later said he wished to hear from various officials who had not been called on and also indicated half a dozen Marin businessmen in the audience who had come to speak; but Fusselman declared that "everybody has had opportunity" and called a vote on the resolution, already moved by Supervisor George Ludy with a second by William A. Gnoss.

Ludy had said he objected to an integrated" plan not providing adequately for the survivor of a deceased retired county employee. Gnoss voiced concern for 73 employees who have elected not to be covered by Social Security.

Ludy said the employees association put forward its ideas for change last year, and that the board had committed itself to act this year.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos was present to argue for a retirement age of 60 for his deputies and for firemen—a reason, he said, for opposition to the integrated Social Security proposal.

Cost to the county of the integrated program would have to be determined by actuarial investigation, Barrows' letter said. There was no clear statement as to how much the new program will cost, but Fontez' letter said it represents a 2½ per cent increase over the present plan for the first five years of operation.

Incensed Negroes Planning March On Alabama's Capital

Governor Wallace Is Blamed For Death Of Four Children

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Birmingham Negroes incensed over the bombing deaths of four of their children plan to march on Montgomery to lay directly before Gov. George C. Wallace their feeling that he is to blame for the slayings.

At their first gathering since the Sunday morning dynamite blast, an estimated 1,200 Negroes took a unanimous standing vote last night to endorse a march on the state house.

The vote came after three integration leaders called for non-violence and accused Wallace of causing the racial tension that led to the dynamiting of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church. No date for the march was set.

An afternoon funeral service for Carol Robertson, 14, one of the four girls killed by the blast, was scheduled at St. John's African Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth told the rally that mass services for the other three victims will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Sixth Avenue South Baptist Church—where the rally was held. The three were Denise McNair, 11, and Addie Mae Collins and Cynthia Wesley, both 14.

Attendance improved sharply today at West End High School, climbing to 754—the highest since the school was integrated and white students began a boycott. The number was down to 466 yesterday but some observers attributed the low attendance to the Sunday violence. Enrollment is 1,442.

In the other two integrated schools, attendance also improved over yesterday, Ramsay High had 852 students today, compared to 776 Monday, Graymont Elementary went to 175 after falling to 127 Monday.

It was also quiet in Huntsville, Mobile and Tuskegee where Negroes are attending classes with whites for the first time. Attendance was about normal at the desegregated schools in Mobile and Huntsville, but white high school students in Tuskegee maintained their total boycott of classes.

Negro leaders here and around the nation called for use of more federal power in Birmingham, but a government source in Washington said there was no legal basis to put additional troops in the city now. There are 300 federalized National Guardsmen on alert here.

Sheriff Melvin Bailey said two white teen-agers were arrested on an open charge in the slaying of one of two Negro

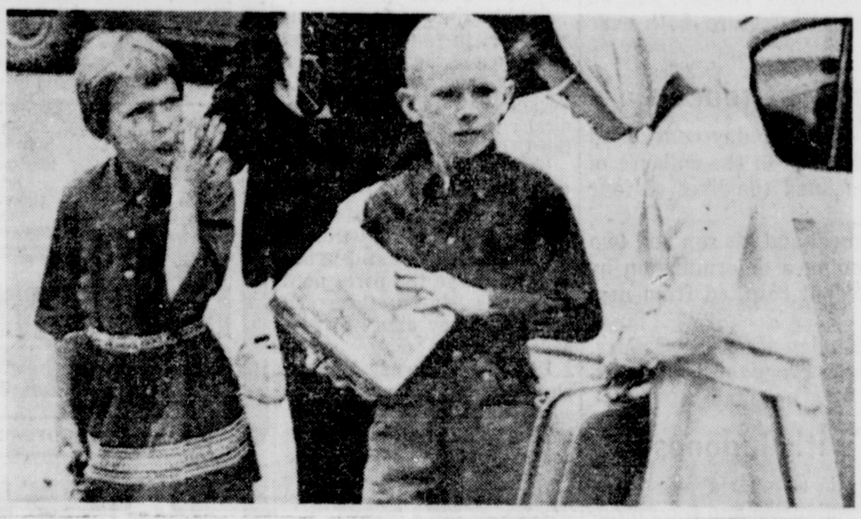
Backers 'Battle' Council Over Penders Demotion



Citizens Demand Reasons

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Backers of Joseph F. Penders, ousted Mill Valley park superintendent, demanded last night the city council give reasons for Penders' demotion to greenskeeper and the forced retirement of his two crewmen, Ted Hansen and Manuel Silva.

In the 90-minute "battle" the council was hit from many sides, but each time rallied to say the city manager hires and fires and the council must support him. Twice Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks said he did not favor reversing the city manager's order. The council took no action.

14 YEARS ON JOB

Almcrants yesterday told Penders, who has been superintendent 14 years, he may remain in his present job until Nov. 30, then may stay on as greenskeeper.

There was no indication by the council of any change in Admcrants' order that Silva and Hansen apply for retirement now, although they have not yet reached mandatory retirement age of 70. However, the council voted unanimously that at its next meeting as retirement board, the retirement age for all employees be set at 65 years.

Penders said today he plans to get a spokesman to talk for him and to ask to be heard further. "I want specific charges," he said, "not generalities."

HEATED DISCUSSION

The heated discussions, made in the main by golfers, were punctuated by the frequent bangs of Sheeks' gavel. He called the audience "rude," "hecklers," and asked them to refrain from name calling.

Cries ranged from "Maybe the city manager should go" to "Why can't the council get here at 8 o'clock?" (Mayor Sheeks arrived at 10:40 and Councilman Michael Wornum at 9:50, both having other commitments).

"I would like this council, who discussed licenses for children to sell lemonade, to tell me about inefficiencies on the golf course or in the park department in general," said

TEENERS CHEER $1 BUILDING PURCHASE

Mill Valley Councilmen Vote To Buy Former Highway Restaurant For Youths

Whistles and shouts went up from a crowd of teen-agers last night when the Mill Valley City Council voted unanimously to buy for $1 the former Colonel's Ranch Wagon restaurant building and attempt to move it to Project 17 for a recreation center.

The big hurdle yet to clear is getting permission from the State Division of Highways to move the building, to be chopped in three pieces, over Highway 101.

City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants explained the building cannot go south on the Alto service road since it can't get under Richardson Bay Bridge, cannot be barged, and hence, must go straight north to the Mill Valley turnoff from the highway.

Almcrants said there are two bids for moving the gift building offered by Charles Mowers, one at $7,000, another at $6,700. Estimates total $14,000 for remodeling and a foundation. The city council Almcrants continued, has $6,000 in its budget toward the center and the teen club has promised the other $1,000 to take care of moving. He urged immediate action to meet the Oct. 1 deadline of acceptance.

Councilman William M. Secor, who moved to accept, said the city should contribute $6,000, the teen club be asked for donations, and that $280 be authorized to permit John D. Erickson, city planning consultant, to proceed with planning on where to put the center.

"Where do we get the $14,000?" quered Councilman George Blackwell.

"The teen-agers can work on it. I think they will get a lot of volunteer labor," said Councilman Michael Wornum.

Soldier Dies In Smashup— 24th Fatality

A soldier from Two Rock Ranch Army Communication Center in Sonoma County, was killed and another was seriously injured yesterday in an auto crash on the Tomales-Petaluma Road about three miles below the Sonoma Copnty line.

The death was the 24th Marin traffic fatality so far this year, compared to 18 at this time a year ago.

Dead on arrival at Hillcrest Hospital, Petaluma, was Sp 4 John B. Hamilton, 22. He was thrown through the windshield and landed 60 feet from where the car came to a halt, reported Highway Patrolman A. W. Krebs.

Taken to Hillcrest and then transferred to Letterman Hospital in San Francisco, where he was in fair condition today, was the driver, Sp 5 John A. Hubbard, 23, who suffered crushed ribs and complained of back pain.

Krebs reported Hubbard was driving a new compact car westbound about 1 p.m. when it ran off a curve after skidding broadside.

Hamilton, from Huntsville, Tenn., lived in an apartment in Petaluma with his wife Barbara and their son Jerry, 18 months.

'THANKS, BUT NO THANKS'

Thurmond Won't Use Truman's Former Senate Desk In Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.), quickly changed his mind today about speaking from another senator's desk when he learned it has been used by former President Harry Truman.

Thurmond in effect told Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.), "No thanks" when Robertson said he had no objection to the South Carolina Democrat borrowing his desk if the Senate granted its permission. However, Robertson told Thurmond, his desk had been used by Truman as a senator from Missouri.

Thurmond ran for president as a "states rights Democrat" against Truman in 1948 and carried four states.

The by-play grew out of a brief discussion of the Senate's need for microphones.

Thurmond had a lectern on his back row desk during the discussion and was waiting to speak against the limited test ban treaty. Robertson was among those advocating microphones so senators could be better heard in the press and visitors' galleries.

Senate rules require members to speak from their own desks unless unanimous consent is granted for them to move.

Thurmond asked consent to move to Robertson's desk. But he quickly withdrew with a wry smile when Robertson told him the desk's history.

Brown Says Barry Candidate; Rules Out Engle Replacement

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown soundly rapped Sen. Barry Goldwater today and waved aside any talk of a replacement for California's ailing Sen. Clair Engle.

The Democratic governor referred directly to Goldwater and declared that anyone who doesn't take an affirmative stand on the civil rights issue "is not doing his job."

Asked whether he thought Goldwater was a candidate for the Republican presidential bid, Brown told his news conference, "I don't think there is any question about it."

He referred to the Arizona senator as a "very sincere but misguided man." (See story on Goldwater, page 2)

Brown made it plain that he's giving no thought to a possible replacement for Engle, who underwent brain surgery in Washington last month. Published reports, still not confirmed by his doctors, said he has an inoperable tumor.

The governor termed the Democratic senator as "very, very ill," and said he didn't think he'd be back for "a long time."

On other subjects, Brown:

1. As expected, named Robert L. Harkness, 56-year-old deputy director of finance, as director of the new Department of General Services. The agency will take over the state housekeeping functions of the Department of Finance. Harkness, a career state employee, is a Republican.

2. Warmly defended Tom Bright, director of motor vehicles, in the wake of dismissal charges involving several of the department's top-ranking officials.

3. Disclosed plans to extend low-interest state loans to low-income California veterans. The program would offer loans to former GIs whose incomes range from $1,800 to $3,000 a year.

4. Said he's willing to go along with his board of agriculture and support federal legislation to provide a one-year extension of the bracero program. But he reiterated he favors ending the importation of Mexican farm labor.

5. Expressed hope that the U.S. Supreme Court would grant a rehearing of its decision in the Arizona-California dispute over Colorado River water rights.

$10,000 Suit Filed Over Lost Trees

Twenty-nine eucalptus trees, chopped down on Richardson Bay School property, are worth $2,500, the Sausalito School District declared today in a damage suit filed in Marin Superior Court.

Furthermore, the tree choppers should pay an additional $7,500 as punitive damages for "willful, malicious and wrongful disregard of the rights of the plaintiff (school)," the suit declares. In other words the school district seeks $10,000 in all.

Asst. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney filed the action for the school district against Lang Construction Co. of San Francisco and the owners of the company.

The trees were thriving near the fence that separates Richardson Bay School from Ebbtide Apartments of Sacramento Street until about Aug. 21.

On or about that date, School Supt. Marcus F. Davis reported, the contractors trespassed onto school land.

Mayor Sees No Violation In Meetings At Hospital

Mill Valley Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks said today that the Mill Valley City Council has been holding "subcommittee" meetings in San Francisco for six years and denied they are in violation of the California government code.

He said councilmembers meet in the office of Councilman George D. Monardo, administrator of Franklin Hospital where "there is a big office, plenty of room and plenty of food. It's very convenient."

He said the last such meeting was held Tuesday at the hospital, he Monardo and councilman William M. Secor, as well as City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants attended.

The city council held an open meeting last night in the city hall which was announced to the public. It did not discuss closed, unannounced meetings at the session.

Councilman Michael Wornum said today he did not attend last Tuesday's meeting because he is not on the committee investigating underground utilities for Miller Avenue.

"I have no objections to committee meetings in San Francisco or anylwhere else," he said. "We talk about subcommittee business. I would object if they started discussing about general policy matters."

Wornum did not specify

WAITING OUT STORM—Maco Pereyra, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Pereyra of Galvaston, Tex., finds waiting out Hurricane Cindy in a public shelter isn't so tough when he has a friend like Tosh, a big dog. (AP Wirephoto)

Coasts Of Texas, Louisiana Bracing For Hurricane Cindy

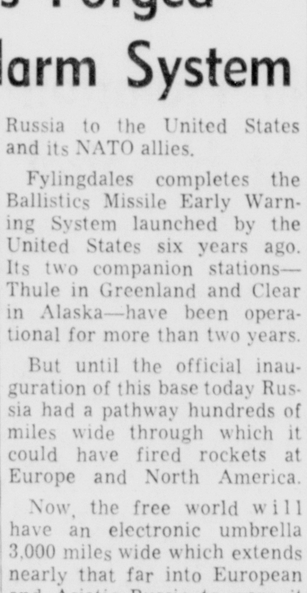
'Disorganized' Storm Carrying 80-MPH Winds

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP) — Hurricane Cindy veered slightly to the west early today. The Weather Bureau said its latest target was the Texas Coast between Port Arthur and Galveston.

Both Texas and Louisiana were braced for the brutal, punishing hurricane winds. Thousands rushed inland while Cindy still growled through the Gulf of Mexico.

"The hurricane has become somewhat disorganized," said the Galveston Weather Bureau. "Its center is poorly defined and the squalls have kind of separated."

Cindy aimed her 80-mile-an-hour winds toward the Texas coast which hurricane Carla pounded two years ago, causing damage in the millions of dollars.



GULF COAST—Arrow points to shaded area from Galveston, Tex., to Vermilion Bay, La., where Hurricane Cindy is boiling along.

The New Orleans Weather Bureau's 6 a.m. advisory said Cindy's eye was about 30 miles southeast of Galveston, which was being lashed with 74 m.p.h. winds.

Cindy wasn't much as hurricanes go. Still her winds generated a force equivalent to 500 atom bombs of the type dropped on Hiroshima.

Cameron, La., a small fishing village due south of Lake Charles, was sealed off as rising tides covered the two highways leading inland.

Only law enforcement officers and Civil Defense workers remained in Cameron, which vividly remembers 1957's hurricane Audrey which flattened the town and left over 500 dead.

The remainder of Cameron Parish's 10,000 residents scurried to high and dry spots like Lake Charles and nearby Sulphur, leaving all but a few belongings behind.

While there were no casualties reported immediately, at least three persons were reported missing. Two were aboard a boat on a lake in the swampy coastal area between Lake Charles and Cameron. The third missing man was reported aboard an oil company crewboat.

At least 26 men were riding out the hurricane on two offshore oil drilling rigs. They couldn't be evacuated in time.

A report from one rig said 30 foot waves and 55 m.p.h. winds were buffeting the structure.

Final Link Is Forged In NATO Alarm System

FYLINGDALES MOOR, England (UPI) — The free world's alarm system against surprise attack by Russian rockets was to go into full operation today with the opening of the final link in a billion-dollar radar chain.

The 120 million dollar-Fylingdales base, built in this national park by the U.S. Air Force and the Royal Air Force, closed the last radar pathway over the top of the world from Russia to the United States and its NATO allies.

Fylingdales completes the Ballistics Missile Early Warning System launched by the United States six years ago. Its two companion stations—Thule in Greenland and Clear in Alaska—have been operational for more than two years.

But until the official inauguration of this base today Russia had a pathway hundreds of miles wide through which it could have fired rockets at Europe and North America.

Now, the free world will have an electronic umbrella 3,000 miles wide which extends nearly that far into European and Asiatic Russia to warn it of attack.

This will give the United States about 15 minutes in which to get its retaliatory forces into action. Fylingdales, which can detect intermediate range missiles as well as intercontinental rockets, will give Britain about four minutes warning.

RAF officers believe they can get a "substantial" part of the atomic bomber force into the air in this time, brief as it is.

Fylingdales consists primarily of three gigantic spheres—like pale blue golf balls the size of 15-story buildings—teed up on bleak Corkshire moorland.

Guerrillas Want Viet Coalition

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—Viet Nam's Communist guerrillas appealed today for a coalition government on the order of neighboring Laos as a means of ending the fighting here.

The appeal was made by Nguyen Huu Tho, president of the Communist "National Liberation Front," in a letter to the United Nations broadcast by Communist stations.

NO TROOPS

It called for withdrawal of U.S. troops, the end of U.S. participation in Vietnamese affairs, and the establishment of a "national, democratic, peaceful, and neutral coalition government," presumably made up of Communists and anti-Communists.

Saigon remained calm after the ending of martial law yesterday but the "state of siege" imposed by President Ngo Dinh Diem in 1961 still gave him wide powers in his crackdown on Buddhists and other opposition elements.

COUP WARNING

The newspaper Times of Viet Nam, which is published by an American couple close to the Ngo family, warned again yesterday of a coup against Diem engineered by "foreign adventurers."

The Times said plans are going ahead for the coup, "set for the eve of the 17th."

Goldwater Hits 'Rocking Chair Leadership'

Senator Pleads For Unity In His Own Party

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Sen. Barry Goldwater last night attacked President John F. Kennedy for what he called "rocking chair leadership" and then pleaded for unity within his own Republican Party, free of "purge" tactics.

The Arizona Conservative told an enthusiastic crowd of 39,317 attending a GOP rally at Dodger Stadium:

"Rocking chair leadership is not enough. Holding the line, preserving the status quo, isn't enough. Big talk and little actions aren't enough. A frontier full of oxcart philosophies isn't enough."

He did not mention the president by name, but made it clear that "America needs a change."

Neither did he mention the name of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who has warned of dangers of right wing extremism to the GOP and who has expressed concern that Goldwater might become a captive of extremist groups.

But his attack of Republicans who want to "purge" or "read people out of the party" sounded like another answer to Rockefeller's criticism of "radical right wing" influence on the GOP.

"These practitioners of defeat and advocates of political suicide, these political isolationists, are suffering from a purge complex," he said. "They want to purge the party until no one is left but them and thee—and they aren't so sure of thee!"

He said "the party bent on purges becomes a party warped by witch hunts."

"The Republican Party must not be the captive of any single faction . . . (or) the captive of any single personality," Goldwater added.

He drew his biggest audience response when he said the Republican Party "believes the security of the United States in a troubled world is a shield for freedom everywhere . . . our party believes that the strength of that shield is the main deterrent of war . . . rejects the notion that the way to peace is through negotiated weakness."

At a news conference earlier in the day, Goldwater declined to "write off" former Vice President Richard M. Nixon as a possible GOP candidate in 1964. "You can't write off a man who came so close to being president," he said — and concurred with Nixon that the 1964 California primary be decisive in determining who will represent the GOP as presidential nominee.

Business Asked To Expand Export, Create More Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz urged American businessmen today to expand their exports to help close the full-employment gap as well as the balance of payments gap.

Wirtz addressed the opening session of the White House Conference on Export Expansion, a gathering of 400 industry executives and others invited to Washington to discuss means of penetrating and enlarging foreign markets for American goods.

President John F. Kennedy called the conference to enlist industry's support and suggestions in his campaign to eliminate the deficit in international payments.

Wirtz said every 1 billion dollars of added exports creates 150,000 new jobs for American workers. Production for export sale, he said, engages 14 to15 per cent of the payrolls in industries making light machinery, chemicals and metals.

It would take more than 75 billion dollars to build from scratch our present system of railroads, according to the Assn. of American Railroads.

SAFETY PEEP HOLE

David Hanley, 219 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, peers through the peep hole which allowed him to continue driving after his windshield cracked into an opaque mass yesterday, from unknown causes, while Hanley was on the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge. The piece of plate glass in the tempered, laminated windshield is found in most cars made in Europe for sale there. Those for sale in the U.S. must have the entire windshield made of laminated glass with plastic between the glass to prevent shattering. Hanley's Mercedes-Benz was made for European sale.

SUPERVISORS GET PESTICIDE REPORT

Agriculture Aide Says No Direct Hazard To Human Beings In Marin County Uses

Pesticides, like automobiles, are very handy to have around, but are dangerous if not used properly, Richard T. Straw, county agricultural commissioner asserted in a 13-page report to the board of supervisors today.

"Pesticides—their usage and possible hazards" reviews the types of pesticides, including those for rodent, weed, insect and swimming pool algae control. The report states that in virtually all cases there is no direct hazard to human beings, although some pets might be poisoned.

Straw noted that when poisoned grains are used for rodent control they are usually dyed green or blue so that they will not attract birds. In a few cases, he said, the county forces have had to use more dangerous materials.

For instance, strychnine bait is used in some areas against skunks and raccoons.

"There is a hazard to pets and possibly to children in this program," Straw reported. "It is therefore discouraged and is only undertaken under extreme conditions and through carefully controlled programs."

However, some other chemicals used from time to time are even more dangerous, Straw said, mentioning tralium sulfate and 1080.

"These materials are extremely hazardous and by law are not available to the general public," Straw noted.

"They are used by the department in projects such as sewer rate control or other programs where a rapid kill is essential and their hazard is minimized."

The big problem with the county weed and poison oak control programs, the agricultural commissioner added, is not to human beings but to useful plants.

He added reassurance about the spraying of blackberry bushes in the county, saying the spraying is done long before the fruit begins to form and that no one should be hurt by eating ripe fruit from healthy bushes.

Mentioning mosquito abatement programs in the county, he said the poisons used disintegrate quickly after use and do not create a problem. Also, he said, the amounts are too small to hurt human beings.

The report contains warnings for the home gardener, advising using pesticides only when absolutely necessary, but early enough to control pests before they gain a good foothold in a garden.

"The old adage, 'If a little is good, a lot is better,'" was not meant for pest control," he added.

Agricultural pest control in the county has been limited in recent years and isn't considered a hazard, the report states.

To show the usefulness of pesticides, Straw recalled conditions in parts of the county before mosquito abatement programs were started.

"In the past," he said "hordes of mosquitoes have caused farm hands to quit their jobs and milk production was curtailed in many areas. At times their numbers were so great in the county that commuters walking to and from trains wore mosquito netting over their heads for protection.

However, Straw conceded much of the notoriety and criticism in the use of pesticides which resulted from the publishing of "Silent Spring," by Rachael Carson was justified. But in each case, he contended, it was improper use which caused the damage.

Hunt Continues For A.F. Officer

TAHOE CITY (AP) — Searchers continued the hunt today for an Air Force officer missing since a weekend boating accident that took the lives of three others on Lake Tahoe.

Still missing was First Lt. G. L. Morgan, 26, of Athens, Tenn.

The bodies of Capt. Jean F. Gasbarri, 30, Leominster, Mass., an Air Force nurse, and First Lt. June O. Murdaugh, 25, Tulsa, Okla., a man, were picked up by the Coast Guard yesterday.

Sunday, the body of nurse First Lt. Janet L. Rankin, 28, Bradford, Pa., was found floating in a life jacket. Near her were a water ski and floor panels from the 18-foot outboard boat they had taken onto the lake Saturday morning.

Two stolen cars were reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Steven Paul Figari of 12 Stetson Avenue, Kentfield, reported his 1951 Chevrolet was stolen sometime between 8:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. from a parking place at Fifth and Tamalpais avenues.

Walter Henry Travis, manager of Annex Motors at 1826 Fourth Street, San Rafael, reported that Frederick William Berger, who just moved away from 107 Taylor Drive, Fairfax, borrowed a 1960 Volkswagen on Sept. 9 for a test drive and had not returned it.

New Investment Firm Organized In Marin

Formation of Francis and Murray, Inc., an investment securities and financial corporation, has been announced by Charles J. Francis of 3 Capri Court, San Rafael.

The firm will maintain cashiering, trading and transfer departments in its Mill Valley headquarters, now at 29 Miller Avenue. The Novato office will be at 912 Grant Avenue. Company plans include future construction of its own buildings in both cities, Francis said.

A wholly-owned subsidiary, First Marin Corp., will hold title to real estate, insurance general agency contracts and engage in other related activities.

Associated with Francis will be Theodore A. Murray of 32 Corte Fedora, Greenbrae. He will serve as vice president of Francis and Murray, Inc., and president of First Marin Corp. HE LEFT A GOODBYE NOTE—Robert Sinclair O'Brien of Redwood City is questioned by California Highway Patrol Officers Theodore McGuire (left) and Kenneth M. Stoffer, after they stopped him on the Golden Gate Bridge upon finding a note in his car indicating suicide. O'Brien was one of three men prevented from leaping off the bridge early today in what the officers called the heaviest "suicide traffic" they ever encountered. (Independent-Journal photo)

20 Negro Students In Protest

About 20 Negro students at Tamalpais High School left school at noon yesterday in protest over the bombing deaths of six children in a Birmingham church Sunday.

The walkout was in response to a suggestion by Chet Duncan western regional field secretary of the Congress of Racial Equality, who proposed that students leave classes and persuade their parents to wire President John F. Kennedy, urging federal troops in Birmingham.

San Francisco school officials said that no children left school there. But Robert H. Prather, principal of Tamalpais High School, said 20, (about 5 per cent of the Negro enrollment of the school), left when the lunch period began at 12:30 p.m.

Prather said he ordered that no effort be made to prevent the protest.

Attendance was normal today, Prather said.

ALABAMA

boys shot to death a few hours after the dynamite blast.

City police said the other youth was killed when they fired buckshot at fleeing Negroes after a rock-throwing incident.

In Washington, President John F. Kennedy expressed "a deep sense of outrage and grief" over the bombing and called on all Americans to put aside prejudices and to unite in working for justice and peace.

"Words and actions" of Wallace and the segregation system caused the Sunday deaths, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said at the rally.

He said Wallace "had allowed himself to defy the law of the land and to deal with Negro citizens in Alabama as if they didn't live in the state."

The governor declined comment on the proposed march on the state Capitol and on King's accusation. He had said earlier he deplored the bombing and hoped the perpetrators would be caught.

They have not been caught. Neither have the persons who staged 21 other bombings in the past eight years.

FBI bomb experts continued to sift through evidence at the church for clues.

Birmingham citizens are reminded of the bombing by church bells tolling at noon each day this week.

Boy In Collision Injured In Fairfax

Randy Bagley, 8, of 15 Azalea Avenue, Fairfax, who suffered a head injury, cut lip and bruises, was injured Saturday when his bike collided with a car on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near Azalea Avenue close to home, not in San Anselmo as incorrectly reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

His mother, Mrs. Glen H. Bagley reported that the boy, in fair condition at Marin General Hospital yesterday, was in improved condition today.

Heavy 'Suicide Traffic' As Three Saved At Span

Three men, each beset with problems, converged on the Golden Gate Bridge this morning, bent on ending it all by leaping over the railing.

Highway Patrolmen Theodore McGuire and Kenneth M. Stoffer, who saved all three, said it was the heaviest "suicide traffic" they had encountered for any one morning.

None of the three knew each other. "It was just coincidence that they chose the same morning and the same place," said McGuire.

The first would-be leaper on the scene was Marion Hugh Goodwin, 35, a San Francisco grocer, who was spotted walking toward the span north of Funston Tunnel shortly after 1 a.m.

"We got him in the car," said Officer Stoffer. "We had a hold of him, but as we neared the toll plaza, he broke out of the car and ran for the bridge, with us hot on his heels."

Patrolmen McGuire and Stoffer tackled Goodwin just before he reached the railing. Goodwin blamed "family troubles."

The next two came in rapid succession just before 5 a.m.

Robert Sinclair O'Brien, 33, a systems analyst from Redwood City, had parked his 1956 two-door sedan at Vista Point, leaving a note to his two daughters and son. The note read: "Daddy loves you more than I can bear alone. Kiss mommy goodbye, and you too. Sorry, love, Daddy."

The patrolmen found the note and sped after O'Brien, who was still on the north end of the bridge, walking toward mid-span.

They picked up O'Brien and were driving across the bridge when they came upon the third would-be leaper, who had been subdued by Roland Frink and Armand Desgroseilliers, military police from the Presidio of San Francisco.

The third man was Vernon Charles Goins, 21, Oakland laborer, who said he was despondent over a broken love affair. He had abandoned his girl friend's car in mid-span and was running toward the railing when the M.P.s caught him.

Patrolmen brought O'Brien to the Marin County Sheriff's office for questioning, then released him to Napa State Hospital for observation. Officers said he apparently had domestic troubles.

The other two men were taken to San Francisco City and County Hospital for observation.

Councilmen Against Underground Utilities

One San Rafael city councilman last night said he was against requriing utility companies to put power lines underground in all new subdivisions, and another indicated that he might be opposed.

Councilman L. H. Bud Baar, referring to a statement by Mayor John F. McInnis in favor of the proposal, said: "I thought it was ridiculous to draw it up. I don't agree with John."

Councilman Charles W. Aby immediately commented, "I don't agree either."

The two councilmen were referring to an amendment to an ordinance passed to print which will require electric and telephone lines in downtown San Rafael to be put underground in stages over the next 15 years.

The amendment, which the council at its Sept. 3 meeting asked be drawn up, would require underground utility lines in new subdivisions and include a plan whereby residents of the city could petition for underground lines, with the utility companies to pay part of the cost.

The amendment was not ready for presentation, but Baar seized the opportunity to speak out in opposition to the proposals.

Baar said, "I think we are premature on something the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. is working on."

Mayor McInnis countered, "PG&E is dragging its feet everywhere." He said that in Oakland cost per lot for underground utility lines was $400, as opposed to $388 for overhead lines.

Wreckers Clear Way For Bank Building

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Wreckers yesterday commenced clearing away six structures to make way for the proposed 43-story, 20-million-dollar Wells Fargo Bank building at 44 Montgomery Street here.

Owners and developers of the new structure which will eventually extend along the south side of Montgomery, from Market to Sutter and around the corner there in an L-shape, took the first swing at the old Flytrap restaurant.

Marinwood Vote Lures Out 246

A total of 246 Marinwood voters turned out by 11:30 a.m. today to vote on whether to approve a $100,000 worth of bonds for construction of a swimming pool.

A two-thirds majority is needed for approval of the bond issue, which will be paid back over a 25-year period.

Two previous votes on bond issues failed by a handful of votes to gain the necessary two-thirds majority for passage.

Polls at the Lucas Valley and Mary E. Silveira School in the Dixie School District opened at 7 a.m. today and will remain open until 7 p.m.

PENDERS

Almcrants read a memorandum he had given to Penders, Hansen and Silva yesterday suggesting inefficiency in the department. He then read a letter from the Mill Valley Women's Golf Club protesting the firing and asking that Penders be retained as superintendent.

"We believe he has done an excellent job . . . We have confidence he will continue to do so," said the letter, signed by Eve Bortch, president.

Almcrants suggested the subject be discussed at the next meeting or some other time. The audience disapproved.

"I have mentioned," Almcrants said, "the inability to accomplish certain things from time to time over a period of time. There has been a growing dissatisfaction from several sources. I felt certain changes must be made . . ."

"What are the reasons?" a woman demanded.

Councilman Michael Wornum said: "This is an administrative matter and should be kept as such . . . It is not a matter of policy . . . It is the city manager's prerogative to fire or hire . . . I don't think this is a matter for public discussion."

"Can he be fired without anybody knowing why?" a citizen asked.

"Maybe then the city manager should go," said a man standing at the back of the room. Yet another person asked, "Does it take our city manager 12 years to find out whether our park superintendent is capable?"

Councilman George Blackwell said he didn't feel it was appropriate for the council to discuss the matter.

"Speaking for myself," said Sheeks, "I think as councilmen we feel much more keenly than some persons in the audience the necessity and responsibility of those who are sitting here for the administration of this city government. We don't regard ourselves as little tin gods."

There was applause, laughter, and cry of "Not much!"

Sheeks, angered, said: "I will give you the courtesy of being heard and I think it is extremely rude of you to interrupt me. You hear me out and I'll hear you out."

Almcrants read a letter in which Joe Regalia, president of the City Employees Assn., said that there were no letters or complaints against Silva and Hansen.

"If it is felt a person in his late 60s is not capable . . . then the mandatory retirement age should be lowered to an appropriate age," wrote Regalia.

"I have had trouble trying to talk to you people at other times." Penders told councilmen. "You are suffering from lack of information and misinformation."

Mrs. Carol Moore, Penders' daughter, asked Almcrants: "Why did you tell me that the city council told you to fire him? You said it was either my father's job or yours."

"I said it would probably be mine," said Almcrants.

"When do you hear all this that is against him (Penders)?" a woman asked. "Aren't we supposed to hear what you're hearing? Are you having all these private meetings?"

"We're hearing week after week, month after month, year after year," said Sheeks. "You can heckle us and raise cain but you don't have to live with the decision."

Dean Meyer mentioned inefficiency of Penders. Police Officer John Castellani asked Meyer to define "inefficiency." Castellani was rapped down by Sheeks' gavel.

Richard L. Parino asked if a hearing could be held for Penders. Mrs. Penders replied that her husband could not belong to the employees association since he is a department head.

MEETING

which city business is subcommittee business.

He said he sees no reason why the meetings held in San Francisco shoulln't be announced "and if anyone wants to come, thats fine."

(The council has not announced the absentee government meetings to the public.)

Councilman George Blackwell, who did not attend Tuesday's meeting, could not be reached today. However, he has told reporters that as he does not work in San Francisco, he does not like to travel there to attend the meetings.

"Meetings of the council shall be held within the corporate limits of the city at a place designated by ordinance. Meetings shall be public," the California government code reads. The state law also provides that a majority of a city council constitutes a quorum and may transact business.

City Aty. Leland H. Jordan said today that whereas "city council meetings must be held within the city limits," "informal meetings of members of the council held for the purpose of gathering information on city business and generally informing themselves on matters pending before them, but at which no action is to be taken" may be held outside the city boundaries.

The Independent-Journal yesterday quoted Jordan as saying meetings can be held anywhere, "New York City if they want." Today, he said he had not referred to regular council meetings.

"The city of Mill Valley has its own ordinance requiring that meetings of its council be held at the Mill Valley City Hall," he said.

The attorney noted that the council recently had before it a proposal to establish a "marineland" in Mill Valley. "It would have been completely legal for the entire city council to travel as a group to Los Angeles, New York or any other place for the purpose of viewing other similar projects —to gather information helpful in arriving at their decision," he said.

"Informal meetings for the mere purpose of information gathering and at which no councilman commits himself to any decision or course of action need not be held within the city limits, nor are they subject to the provisions of the (Ralph M.) Brown Act," he declared.

"Such meetings must be distinguished from meetings of a quorum of the council at which the member make decisions, take action or commit themselves to certain decisions or action."

Intoxicated Novato Driver Fined $166

Elwyn Mattie, 45, of 1635 Novato Boulevard, Novato, paid $166 fine yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson sentenced Mattie for driving while intoxicated along Highway 101 last Aug. 17. Mattie was also placed on nine months probation, with a 15-day jail term hanging over his head if he violates terms of probation.

OBITUARIES

Patrick J. Fanning Dies At 77

Patrick J. Fanning, 77, of 314 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, maintenance man at St. Anselm's Church, San Anselmo, died unexpectedly yesterday at a local hospital.

Fanning was admitted to the hospital Sunday night. Asst. Coroner William Bradley said death was caused by an internal hemorrhage.

Fanning had worked as a maintenance man at St. Anselm's for 17 years. For many years he worked at both the church and school, but in recent years he worked at the church only.

A native of Ireland, he was a resident of Marin County for 58 years, working as a gardener and at Marinship before his job at St. Anselm's.

Surviving are his wife, Kathleen; two daughters, Mrs. Kathleen Stocking of Kentfield and Mrs. Patricia T. Tate of Denver, Colo., and five grandchildren.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock tonight at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. A Requiem Mass will be said at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at St. Anselm's Church. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

JAMES WHEELER

James Wheeler, 27, of Marin City, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

Parents Now Believe Girl Dead

Parents of long-missing Doreen Heskett said today they are convinced she is dead and appealed to her abductor to tell where the body is hidden.

Five-year-old Doreen vanished last March 25, somewhere between her own home and the home of a friend 10 blocks away. A long and widespread search, in which Fort Baker soldiers, Marin County sheriff's officers, and Air Force helicopters participated, failed to find a trace of her.

Doreen's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Heskett, was named "Novato Mother of the Year" in 1959. She and her husband Marvin and their children moved subsequently to Napa.

"We have no vengeance in our hearts," said today's appeal by the parents. "The police have nothing to do with this appeal.

"The information where she may be found may be given through an anonymous letter, telegram, or phone call. Or the message may be sent to our priest."

The Hesketts have eight other children.

County planning commissioners yesterday agreed to continue their discussion of construction of two and one-half story duplex in Tiburon, termed "overdevelopment" on an "extremely substandard" lot.

Jeffory Morshead of Atherton is requesting a variance to construct the building at 2312 Mar East Street. Plans now call for about half of the building's 105 foot length to protrude over water at high tide.

Commissioner Felix M. Warburg noted that it might be a more appropriate lot for a one-family, smaller scale building. Commissioner Edward K. Wachsman termed it an "excessive use of . . . property."

The planning staff which advises the commission noted the lot is "extremely substandard" for duplex construction. But the duplex construction is legal due to zoning technicalities, planners noted.

Commissioners agreed to continue their discussion to Oct. 7.

Woman Steals $50,000 In Diamonds

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An elderly woman wearing a mink stole that had seen better days and a big feather in her hat vanished in a downtown crowd yesterday after stealing an estimated $50,000 in uncut diamonds, police said.

John de Leeuw, vice president of the Paul de Vries jewelry store told officers the woman, about 70, entered the store and asked to see several items of jewelry, adding that hers had all been stolen.

De Leeuw showed her a number of bracelets, necklaces and diamonds, returning each bundle before taking another out.

After he brought out a jeweled wallet containing some 2,000 loose diamonds, the lady asked to see an expensive piece.

He put the wallet on a case behind the counter, and stepped into the vault. He estimated he was out of her sight for less than a minute.

As he was returning, the old lady was leaving.

"Madam . . ." began de Leeuw.

"I can't make up my mind," she said. "I'm going to talk to my husband. I'll be back."

De Leeuw hurried to the desk and found the wallet was gone.

Quints Doing Well —At Four Days Old

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — The Fischer quintuplets went into their fourth day today, breathing easily and with reported good color on all of them.

Dr. James Berbos, who brought the four girls and a boy into the world between 1 and 3 a.m. Saturday had termed the first 72 hours crucial. He left St. Luke's Hospital shortly before midnight, apparently satisfied his charges were doing well.

But he warned that the premature quints born to Mrs. Mary Ann Fischer, 30, still could have hurdles, saying, "There's no magic number for any danger period. It just depends on their day-to-day condition."

The quints took their first formula yesterday—about a teaspoon of artificial milk every two hours—and were reported to be assimilating it well.

At the same time, the babies got their full names and an array of gifts informally assessed at more than $35,000.

Their mother had her first meeting with newsmen since the births, and told three photographers last night, "I feel fine."

The photographers, permitted in her room only 10 minutes to shoot still pictures, television tape and movie film on a pool basis, reported Mrs. Fischer very cheerful.

Mrs. Fischer and her husband, Andrew, 38, made the final decision on names for the four girls last night.

They will be called Mary Ann, Mary Catherine, Mary Margaret and Mary Magdalene. The lone boy had been named James Andrew earlier.

Mary Ann is named after her mother; Mary Catherine is named for Sister Mary Stephen, the St. Luke's Hospital administrator who was Catherine Davis before she became a nun; Mary Margaret is named for Margaret Dorman, chief nurse in pediatrics at St. Luke's; and Mary Magdalene is named for her paternal grandmother.

The quints were deluged with gifts, ranging from diaper service to college scholarships.

The offers included a four-year scholarship for James Andrew to St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia, scholarships to all five at Northern State College here, and scholarships for all four girls to two girls' schools, Presentation Junior College here and Mount Mary College at Yankton, S.D. The latter two are operated by orders of Catholic nuns.

The Fischers also faced a decision on whether to move to a different home when things settle down.

Their landlords, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Harrington, offered to give the family the house now occupied, or land for a new home. The Chamber of Commerce promised either to build the Fischers a new home or buy them one. There also was an offer of free labor to build a new home.

Others gave new kitchen and laundry facilities for a new house, free landscaping and free moving service.

The babies received insurance policies, stock certificates and every item of clothing and baby accessories possible.

Mrs. Fischer is expected to go home the latter part of the week, but the babies won't get out of their incubators for another five to seven weeks.

Goerndt has been fired by City Mgr. Charles A. Brown to become effective Oct. 6.

Also on the agenda under unfinished busines is a council commitee report on the Cote D'Azur Landscape plan and a review by the city staff of the Alexander Avenue traffic problem. Marinship master plan will be discussed at an adjourned meeting Sept. 24

OVER-WATER ZONE PLAN IS ORDERED

New Regulation Sought After Planners Review Floating Motel For Sausalito

The Marin County planning staff was ordered yesterday to devise a new zone for regulating subdivision which are built out over water, or which float on water.

The order came from the Marin County Planning Commission after viewing plans presented by D. McCoy Co. of Sausalito for a floating motel and subdivision in what is now industrially zoned land and water just south of Richardson Bay Bridge.

The commissioners were asked to approve the project "in principle" although they were told the final plans would probably be quite different from those presented.

The plans called for a large motel, part of which, along with a restaurant, would be on filled land, but the rest of which would be in floating duplex units on long docks off shore.

On either side of the motel would be single family houseboats, also on long docks.

Planning director B. D. Dobbs said one problem facing the development is that of the pierhead and bulkhead lines in Richardson Bay. These lines would restrict development into the water.

The county board of supervisors will discuss whether to use these restrictions at a meeting Sept. 26.

The commission was tough on service stations yesterday, especially a Mobil Oil Co. station proposed for a corner of the Bel Aire Shopping Center at Tiburon Boulevard and Blackfield Drive.

The station was turned down after businessmen in the Center complained there wouldn't be enough parking.

The meeting was one of the longest in the commission's history, handling 51 items between 9 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., with two hours out for lunch.

The commissioners required the owners to sign a statement that the county would not be responsible for any flooding the building might cause upstream on Corte Madera Creek. Commissioner Dr. William F. Upton asked that the two narrow wooden bridges be improved for access, at least for fire protection.

The Marin County Planning Commission Also:

1. Approved plans by Atherton Land and Development Co. for a 40-acre private resort at Atherton Avenue and H Lane, east of Novato, but requiring new future approval if requested housing units, including trailers, are to be used for members.

2. Approved a tentative map for the 59-acre Oak Valley subdivision near Sutro Avenue and Vineyard Road, west of Novato.

3. Approved for three years a use permit for the Green Rock Hunting Club, 75 members strong, to operate a private pheasant hunting club in the center of the 1,000-acre lands of St. Vincent's School for Boys, east of Highway 101 opposite Marinwood.

4. Held over until Oct. 2 consideration of precise plans for multiple dwelling row house units, proposed in the Marinwood planned community zone on Miller Creek Road next to the commercial center.

5. Approved architecturally plans by Britt and Associates for a first stage, 62-unit, development of a motel just north of the Tiburon fire station on Tiburon Boulevard, although the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council had asked for a delay to study plans further.

6. Set hearings Oct. 2 on zoning regulations for trailer parks and rezoning in the San Geronimo Valley.

7. Refused to initiate hearings for rezoning an industrial area in Alto where apartments have been tentatively planned. Commissioner Upton moved to set the hearing, but the motion died for a lack of a second.

8. Informally turned down a suggestion from the Marin County redevelopment Agency that the planning staff review future plans for construction and changes in redevelopment property.

9. Approved a tentative map of Valley of the Redwoods development, two miles northwest of Inverness, where 11 acres will be subdivided into lots at least a half acre in size.

10. Approved plans for a small community swimming pool at 901 Bel-Marin Keys Road in Ignacio.

11. Approved plans for a 56-unit, two-to-three story apartment building on the southwest corner of Adrian Way and Labrea Way in Santa Venetia, adjacent to the Gallinas Village Shopping Center.

Burglars Take Cash

Burglars pried a window open to gain entry to Thrifty Cleaners at 530 Third Street, San Rafael, and steal $10 from the cash register Friday night.

The burglary was discovered by Hortencia V. Sanchez of 1382 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, when she opened the office Saturday morning.

San Rafael Planners Shaken Up

The San Rafael City Council last night strongly suggested there be a change in chairmanship of the planning commission.

The suggestion was in the form of reappointment of Chairman Pat Hetherton with recommendation that the commission hold an organization meeting and elect a new chairman.

Councilman L. H. Bud H. Baar said "The commission needs a new chairman. You get stale and assume too much power after a while." Hetherton has been on the commission for nine years.

The council failed to reappoint commissioner Gene F. O'Conner, who has served four years, and appointed Fred C. Robbins Jr. of 45 Balboa Avenue to take his place.

Mayor John F. McInnis said, "My only comment is that we retain Hetherton." Councilman Charles W. Aby added, "I prefer not to reappoint O'Connor."

The council then decided to send a letter of commendation to O'Connor.

The San Rafael City Council also:

1. Awarded a contract to Piombo Brothers for $5,485.70 to reconstruct a sewer on Marin Street. Piombo was low bidder on the job, for which five bids were received.

2. Denied an appeal of planning commission turndown of a lot split at 2122 Fourth Street between Fourth and Alexander Avenue on the basis that the traffic load would be too much for Alexander Avenue.

3. Directed the public works department to present estimates of widening Second Street either by using the south side of the street or by acquiring the American-French Laundry at 11 Minnie Street on the north side.

4. Held over to Oct. 7 setting up an assessment district for unit one of San Rafael Caves because revised plans were not ready.

5. Held over to Oct. 7 a proposed animal control ordinance so that the ordinance can be compared with what other cities have adopted.

6. Passed to print an amendment to the fire zone ordinance making requirements the same for single family residences as they are for duplexes.

7. Issued a call for bids for Oct. 7 for correction of a slide on Upper Freemont Drive with the job estimated to cost $8,534.

8. Agreed to install a stop sign on Third Street, west of Grand Avenue, and directed the police department to issue warning tickets to all night parkers on Fourth Street so the street sweeper would have easier access.

9. Set for Oct. 1 at 8 p.m. a joint meeting of city council, planning commission and parks and recreation commission to discuss future park sites.

10. Approved a rental agreement with E. Bugna Inc. for a used car lot on city property on Francisco Boulevard at $300 per month with a 90-day cancellation clause.

11. Held over to Oct. 7 a discussion on "anti-cheater" traffic controls and a request by the chamber of commerce not to enter into a contract with Traffic Control Inc. for the devices.

12. Authorized placing Ann Beach on the payroll at $370 a month as a clerk-dispatcher in the fire department.

Five seniors at Terra Linda High School have been named as semifinalists on the national merit scholarship examination.

They are: Sandra Egenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Egenberger of 301 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia; Paul Kemper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kemper of 900 Las Povadas Avenue, Terra Linda; Clinton Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee of 163 Merrydale Road, Santa Venetia; Ed Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schroeder of 647 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, and Diane Swingle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Swingle of 426 Hickory Lane, Terra Linda.

Old Mill Library Site Accepted

The Mill Valley City Council last night voted 3-0, Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks and Councilman Michael Wornum being absent during that part of the meeting, to accept the library trustees' recommendation that a portion of Old Mill Park be used as a library site.

This was conditioned, as stated in Councilman George Blackwell's motion, "on the understanding that the land taken from Old Mill Park be replaced with other city land which will be designated for park purposes on the basis of equal value determined by appraisal."

Speaking for the site were Mrs. John P. Farnham and Paul G. Fourman, library trustees; Jerome C. Hauke; Donn Emmons, architect; Mrs. Donna Iglehart, and Mrs. Dorothy Peavy. Speaking against were Mrs. William B. Allen, Donald C. Oman and Richard L. Parino.

Acting Mayor George D. Monardo said cost of the proposed building is $308,000. This would necessitate a bond issue of about $264,000. It was brought out the library would use about 8,000 square feet of the park's six and one-half acres.

The council voted to hire experts to make a position classification study of city jobs at a cost of $1,050, the money to come from fines and penalties.

Joe Regalia, president of the Mill Valley Employees Assn., thanked the council for the survey and said "we are still hoping the rest of the survey will come as soon as possible. Classifications means an awful lot but so does the salary survey."

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

1. Accepted low bid of $2,495 by Russ Lauterwasser of Larkspur for repairing Summit Avenue bridge. Other bids: Sterling and Co., $7,960; Richardson and Roenfeld, $6,797.

2. Introduced an ordinance to permit collection of sewer installation charges on the tax roll.

3. Authorized spending $600 to have City Engineer Stanley M. Bala "precise" Enchanted Knolls drainage area within two months.

4. Instructed Bala to study a piece of Marin Municipal Water District property near the city corporation yard to determine if it is required by the city for treatment plant expansion; cost would be $47,000 for the 100-by-160 foot parcel.

5. Made a policy that applicants for annexations must pay cost for engineering, publication, and a fee of $150.

6. Approved a use permit for Jean Raible to operate a nursery school in the First Baptist Church.

7. Gave Mill Valley Assn. of Volunteer Firemen permission to place a banner over East Blithedale Avenue at Nelson Avenue for two weeks to publicize a Nov. 2 dance.

8. Voted 3-2, Councilmen George Blackwell and William M. Secor voting "no," to put up "watch for children" signs on Monte Vista Avenue at Marion and Rose avenues. Don Stevens, in the audience, said the signs should read "watch for automobiles."

9. Gave Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church permission for its teen club to use the municipal clubhouse for a dance.

10. Adopted an ordinance rezoning Sollom property, near Miller Avenue and Camino Alto, from single family residential to commercial-industrial.

Supervisors To Consider Fire Code

Marin County Supervisors will consider proposals for a tougher fire protection construction code at their Oct. 1 meeting.

Proposals were worked out at a meeting yesterday with Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, county officials and some fire chiefs of the unincorporated areas. The fire chiefs generally want still tighter construction rules than those proposed by the county officials, Barrows reported. But he said he will go before the supervisors with a compromise plan which generally would require wall construction able to withstand fire for four hours (generally brick or concrete and steel) in commercial and industrial zones of more than two and one-half acres contiguous area.

County officials previously had opposed the "four-hour walls" as uneeded at present in most unincorporated areas. Some fire chiefs had backed four-hour walls for all commercial-industrial zoning construction but were generally opposed by builders.

Planners Step Into Tiburon Sign Dispute

The Marin County Planning Commission stepped in as arbitrator in a friendly war between two apartment house developments in Tiburon yesterday.

The matter came before the commission after people in Tiburon started complaining about a large number of signs going up, without permits, giving directions to the Pelican Hill and Tiburon Hill apartments.

Gene Bell of Kaehler-Farrar, builder of the Pelican Hill project, appeared to explain that the war started because potential customers had to drive past the Tiburon Hill apartments first.

"In fact," he said, "some people were parking at the Tiburon Hill apartments and then walking about a block uphill to our place, complaining bitterly because we hadn't provided closer parking."

The commission decided each project could keep all its signs with the exception of a hugh yellow and black banner put up by Kaehler-Farrar, after senior planner Sidney Shaw conceded that signs were necessary to help people find their way.

McInnis To Talk At Red Cross Meet

John F. McInnis, mayor of San Rafael, will be featured speaker at the 51st annual meeting of the Marin Chapter of the American Red Cross to be held at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 25.

The meeting will be at Dominic's Harbor restaurant, San Rafael.

A new board of directors will be elected and Red Cross volunteers recognized with awards, according to Mrs. Harry D. Rothrock, general chairman. The meeting will also highlight the 100th anniversary of the International Red Cross founding.

Employees Ask Time Off In Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Employees Assn. requested the town council last night to give public works employees an hour off for each hour they spend on standby duty.

Under present regulations an employee on weekend standby is given four hours compensatory time off, the association said in a letter to the council.

The association also requested that further assignment of personnel be halted "until this situation is corrected," and that "all employees who have already put in time on this assignment be granted retroactive time off."

Councilmen took no action on the requests, pending a report by Councilman Norman R. Barnett, due at the Oct. 7 meeting.

Barnett said he will meet with Public Works Supt. Walter Nagel and representatives of the employees association before making his report.

Former Councilman Bruce Goecker charged at the Sept. 3 council meeting that there was "intimidation, harassment and discrimination" against a majority of public works employees.

He said that except for two employees living out of town, each department employee had to take his turn being available at home all weekend. He said they were given two hours off in return, which he felt was inadequate.

The Corte Madera Town Council Also:

1. Received a petition from 11 residents in the Chapman Park-Hidden Valley area requesting that developers be required to repair and maintain Upper Sausalito Street, and authorized Town Manager A. N. Brandow "to take a look" at the street which the residents claim is being ruined by trucking.

2. After public hearing at which no protests was made, passed an ordinance requiring a permit for the disposal of sewage other than by connection to a public sewer system.

3. Passed by 3-1 vote a zoning ordinance amendment adding real estate offices, insurance offices and employment agencies as permitted uses in a C-4 (commercial service district) zone. Mayor Edward W. Colthurst dissented. Councilman Robert I. LaDow was absent.

4. Awarded Coan Equipment Co. of Albany, lowest of nine bidders, a contract to provide a backhoe tractor at a price of $6,999.

5. Authorized Bandow to award a contract, not to exceed $2,500 to the lowest bidder for construction of curbs and gutters along the north side of Meadowsweet Drive from Sausalito Street to Sanford Street.

6. Urged Bandow to determine what is being done to prevent further vandalism at the town equipment yard where trucks were stripped of wiring and what investigation has been made.

7. Received a report from Brandow that it is not feasible to declare a public nuisance at Meadowsweet Drive because of "debris, rocks and water" as requested by Vreeland March of 777 Meadowsweet Drive.

8. Nominated Councilman Charles F. Pendleton for one of the two Corte Madera seats on the countywide Local Agency Formation Commission, and San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis for the Bay Area Transpotation Study Commission.

9. Approved a $1,200 warrant to William H. Wilkinson as settlement of a right-of-way acquisition in 1960 for the first phase of development of Paradise Drive.

10. Welcomed eight Boy Scouts from Troop 24 who were attending the council session as part of their work toward earning merit badges in citizenship.

11. Agreed to make a field inspection of the Seaside Unit 1 site along Paradise Drive Sunday afternoon.

Planners Approve Two Buildings

Architectural supervision was granted last night by the Novato Planning Commission for two commercial buildings for William Nave, one at the west end of the Nave Shopping Center and the other directly across Center Road adjacent to the Tresch Shopping Center.

The commission also granted architectural supervision for a four-unit apartment on Vallejo Avenue west of Clayton Court to Eugene McGillicuddy.

Oct. 14 was set for public hearing on a request by Harry Heifetz to rezone 10 acres west of Highway 101 and south of Novato Fair Shopping Center from multiple residential to commercial.

DUFFY PLACE at IRWIN STREETS SAN RAFAEL 454-2144

Flood Control Step Is Taken

A short step was taken last night by the San Rafael City Council toward relieving flooding problems in the Bret Harte area before winter rains begin.

The public works department was instructed to ready a pump, now located under the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks, for movement to the pumping station at Francisco Boulevard. This would increase the pumping station's capacity by 20 per cent.

The move will take place when the railroad begins construction of a trestle over a drainage ditch near the Geister Brothers property on DuBois Street.

Work is also to begin by the property owners on widening a drainage ditch which takes water from the Geister Brothers property to the pumping station on Francisco Boulevard and construction of a culvert under the railroad track north of DeLucca Place.

Mayor John F. McInnis commented on a set of proposals presented by Paul Ciampi, representing property owners.

He said: "I am sure they are concerned. It is already into the middle of September. This is not a full step."

The proposals by Ciampi included purchase of a new pump and construction of a new pumping pit at Jordan and Lindaro streets.

These proposals, estimated to cost the city and property owners about $9,000 apiece, were to be checked to see if they "dovetail" with a master drainage plan for the area.

City Engineer Dominic Selmi said the plan "would help. Instead of taking a week to pump the area out, it would take three days."

Kentfield Trustees See Plan For School

Preliminary sketches for a new addition to Wolfe Grade School to serve as a combination classroom building and community center were shown the Kentfield School District board last night.

The plans by architects Corlett and Spackman will be reviewed again Sept. 30.

The board accepted Adaline E. Kent School addition 7 as complete.

Trustees discussed providing a larger fenced area for parking bicycles at Kent School, to prevent vandalism. Supt. Howard C. Harmon was instructed to provide severe punishment for any pupil caught in any vandalism.

The Kentfield School District board also:

1. Heard a report from insurance agent Withrop Watrous urging the board to require outside groups using district facilities or grounds to carry liability insurance with the district as joint insured or be covered by a hold-harmless clause.

2. Heard a request by James J. Lienkaemper and Richard Simmons of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission to continue the Saturday program at Greenbrae School; the board directed Harmon to work out the details with the commission.

3. Renewed contracts with the county schools office for special education to handicapped children, for nursery services and for speech therapy.

4. Received the resignation of Mrs. Dorothy Keas, Greenbrae School Library Clerk, and named Mrs. Noni Quinlivan to replace her.

Sideswipe Bruises Driver Of Auto

Albert Coppin, 20, of 770 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, was bruised about 11:15 p.m. Saturday in a two-car sideswipe on San Pedro Road near Margarita Drive, Santa Venetia.

Coppin was eastbound on a curve when his car collided with a westbound half-ton pickup truck driven by Kenneth R. Masconi, 17, of 60 Green Valley Court, San Anselmo, reported the California Highway Patrol. Coppin was cited for crossing the divided line. He was to see his doctor.

Furs, Jewelry Thief Given Prison Term

A burglar who made one of the biggest hauls in San Rafael's history, $92,955 in furs and jewelry from the Hickingbotham mansion, was sentenced to state prison in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

Lloyd Arthur Pacini, 28, former San Anselmo resident whose last address was in San Francisco, must serve one to 15 years for burglarizing the home of Joseph C. Hickingbotham Jr., 1403 Mission Ave., on New Years Eve, 1962.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori ordered Pacini to serve the prison term concurrently with a similar term he drew for a San Francisco burglary.

Pacini was arrested in San Francisco in October, 1962, while in the act of rifling a home there.

Richard S. J. Rolley, 32, a San Francisco robber and auto thief, was also suspected as an accomplice in the Hickingbotham gem and fur theft. However, charges against Rolley were dismissed because of insufficient evidence.

Rolley is now serving a federal prison term at Terminal Island for transporting a stolen car over state lines. When he completes that sentence, he faces a state prison term for a San Francisco robbery.

The burglary of the historic 14-room Hickingbotham mansion on Robert Dollar Drive was reported by the family's French housekeeper, who returned to the home about 1:48 a.m. Jan 1, 1962, and found it ransacked. The family ws at Lake Tahoe at the time.

Jack Sparrow Quits Novato Rec Group

Jack Sparrow, first chairman of the Novato Parks and RecreationAdvisory Commission, last night resigned from the commission, effective immediately.

Sparrow was named chairman of the commission when it was organized. He served as chairman for a year, succeeded by McKeay, the present chairman.

The resignation was accepted with regret. Sparrow said it was forced by pressure of business.

The commission designated October as "cultural month for Novato." Events will include an art show, two out-of-town stage productions, and the fall "fling," said Edmund Mahany, parks and recreation director.

Mahany reported that during the summer recreation program, everage daily attendance was 214 at elementary schools and 192 at junior and senior high schools.

Mahany said he would consult with agricultural agents, the Novato Garden Club and the chamber of commerce prior to drawing up plans for landscaping the center strip of Highway 101 as directed by the city council.

The Protestant Interracial Council of Marin County, the Community Affairs Committee of Temple Rodef Sholom and St. Isabella's parish cooperated in the drive.

Any further donations may be made to "Food for Freedom" P. O. Box 406, Mill Valley, or to local chairmen.

Novato police said Rocky stepped in front of a car driven by Irma Ruth Nogue, 50, of 2260 Center Road, westbound on Novato Boulevard near Our Lady of Loretto Church.

The boy suffered bruises and abraisions of the left side, a broken nose, concussion, and internal injuries.

San Anselmo Planners Favor Gas Station Special Permits

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night voted unanimously in favor of an amendment to the city zoning ordinance which would require special use permits for service stations.

The recommendation will go to the city council. Commission chairman Ronald R. Hill said the present ordinance has no planning control over new stations. All a gasoline company needs is a building permit.

Control is wanted, Hill said, because the commission is fearful that the city may become "saturated" with service stations. He also said the requirement of a use permit would give the commission some control over traffic access.

No one was present at last night's meeting to protest the proposed ordinance.

The San Anselmo Planning Commission also:

1. Approved the final map of Red Hill Center, a three-lot commercial subdivision proposed by Lang Construction Co. on the north side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard west of Bridge Avenue.

2. Approved a three-lot subdivision proposed by Alex Pohoriles on the east side of San Anselmo Avenue.

3. Adjourned until 8 p.m. today for a joint meeting with the city council to discuss planning and policy matters. Hill said there will be no other adjourned meetings this month. Next regular meeting will be Oct. 21.

Novato Improvement

The Novato Downtown Improvement Assn. will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday at the community house, according to Joseph Wright, president. Main topic will be a membership drive.

San Rafael Council Is Deadlocked On Selling Of City Hall

Eight Parking Spaces, Possible Traffic Jam Are At Stake

San Rafael city councilmen last night reached a deadlock on how to put the city hall up for sale.

At stake are eight parking spaces and a possible traffic jam.

Roy A. Brown, publisher of the Independent-Journal, who has offered to purchase the site when it's put up for public bid, said he would like a portion of the site and a 15-foot easement for parking of newspaper delivery vehicles before city offices move to a new city hall.

The remaining 105-by-130 foot portion nearest A Street could be used by the city for parking for 10 years, he said.

Councilmen L. H. Bud Baar and Fred Jensen said it was their understanding that Brown's original offer was for the city to retain the whole site, except the old Marin Municipal Water District office, until the move to the new city hall on Fifth Avenue was made.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier said, "I am not concerned with the loss of eight parking spaces (contained in the area nearest the I-J building) but the traffic jam that will result from the distribution cars piling up."

However, Mayor John F. McInnis felt it was the attitude of most councilmen that "we need the back row of parking. It seems we have no room for negotiation."

He added, "We are on dead center. Either we concede to Brown or he concedes to us on the delivery of the whole property when we move off."

It was agreed that Brown's attorney, Albert E. Bagshaw, would meet with City Atty. David Menary Jr. to try to resolve the deadlock before the Oct. 7 meeting, when the council will again seek to set up specifications for sale of the property.

San Jose Trustees Don't Like Report

Dissatisfaction with the Booz-Allen and Hamilton report on North Marin School District organization, and a threat not to pay the district's share for the report until it answers their questions, were voiced last night by San Jose School District trustees.

"I feel that the report does not answer the questions asked in the first place. I don't want to pay for the report until it is complete," said Trustees Alan Swabacker. "If we went on the report on unification (with Novato) our taxes would go up and our education be watered down."

"I feel the same way," said Trustee James Swenson.

Swenson said he thought the four boards that asked for the report (San Jose, Novato, Dixie and San Rafael) should get a complete report from Booz-Allen and Hamilton.

"The two districts (San Jose and Novato) are bigger now than when the last (unification) election failed. There are more complications now than then and the report doesn't tell us what to do about them," said Trustee Jean Ansley.

The San Jose School District Board Also:

1. Granted California Cargo Co. of Hayward an extension to Oct. 7 on delivery of five portable classrooms. The district had ordered six classrooms, but a fire in the plant and a subsequent strike in the plywood industry delayed construction. The first arrived Monday. Swabacker voted against the extension.

2. Purchased an $18,408 school bus from Gillig Transit Coach Co. of Hayward on a five-year lease-purchase plan.

3. Requested an advance of $195,083.03 from the county treasurer to run the district until the taxes are collected.

4. Approved a new application for federal funds for multipurpose rooms, at the Intermediate School and Loma Verde School.

5. Voted to request funds from the City of Novato to help install a sprinkling system, top soil and turfing for the Lynwood School as part of the joint recreation program.

6. Hired Mrs. Judith Cavanaugh for a first grade teacher at Meadow Park School, and John B. Lum as eighth grade teacher at Intermediate School to replace Robert Lea, who was appointed assistant principal. Gary Douglas was hired as custodian at Intermediate School.

Hearing On Quarry Site Stopped Before It Starts

The Corte Madera Town Council's public hearing on rezoning the old quarry site, west of Highway 101, was stopped before it started last night by a temporary restraining order.

The council was halted as result of court action by Kaehler-Farrar Development Inc., which has plans for a vast apartment development on the quarry site. The council proposed to rezone the site from apartment to duplex use.

The restraining order, issued by Superior Court Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., halts any council or planning commission action on the rezoning until proceedings are completed an a writ of mandate filed by Kaehler-Farrar.

The writ is on the court calendar for Monday afternoon, but is expected to be postponed because attorneys for both sides anticipate a full day in court will be necessary.

In the writ filed against the Corte Madera Town Council and Corte Madera Planning Commission, Kaehler-Farrar claims it will be damaged to the extent of $200,000 if not allowed to build apartments at the site.

The firm, represented by attorneys Robert W. Pendergrass and James B. McKenney, claims it has already spent more than half a million dollars for the land and $10,000 for plans.

The firm's plans for building more than 300 apartment units at the site have been disapproved by the Corte Madera council and planning commission.

Late Motion Picture Aide To Be Honored

NEW YORK (AP) — Eric A. Johnston, late president of the Motion Picture Institute of America, will be honored by an annual award bearing his name.

The Associated Motion Picture Advertisers decided to develop into an annual accolade the special award instituted this year to honor Johnston for his "major contribution to international goodwill through his efforts on behalf of the motion picture industry."

Tam Frosh Science Is Urged

Science courses for high school freshmen were recommended to the Tamalpais High School District board last night.

They wouldn't be for all freshmen, suggested Woodward J. Johnson, Redwood High School chemistry teacher who was chairman of a summer science workshop in the district. "They'd be for about five per cent who are science "whiz kids" and plan science majors.

He suggested such freshmen be permitted to take biology—now a sophomore course—in their following year, following it with chemistry as sophomores and physics or physiology as juniors.

For students who not only are non-scientific but are "non-academic," he suggested a new one-year science course, called "foundations of science," to fill requirements for graduation.

Tam District Praised For Improving Classes

Tamalpais Union High School District "is in the forefront in the nation in developing curricula" from its annual workshops, the district board was informed last night.

James L. Pierce, Redwood High School teacher and district English supervisor, made the assertion. He was chairman of a recent workshop on the slow learner program.

Pierce said his work has brought him into contact with educators from coast to coast who have praised the Tam district workshops as a means of improving classes.

The recent slow learner workshop had 19 teachers taking part and they talked with 14 outside consultants, reported Pierce.

His report showed educators have not been able to put on paper any picture of a typical slow learner.

"Some have a low intelligence quotient. Some have average. Some read fast. Some read slow," said Pierce. "Some read at a high level but write at a low level. Others read at a low level but write at a high level."

Most dropouts are from the 18 to 20 per cent of students regarded as slow learners, reported Pierce.

He said special groupings appear to have no effect on the students' learning rate but make work easier for teachers.

Engineers Meeting

Latest developments in semiconductors and their uses in electronic circuits will be reviewed by James Diller, head of special projects engineering at Fairchild Semiconductor in San Rafael, at a meeting of the Marin Chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers at 7 p.m. tomorrow at Sabella's Restaurant, Alto.

More U.S. Economics Is Urged

"The American public is nearly illiterate in economics" and for this reason Tamalpais Union High School district should again consider adding a seventh period to the daily program, a teacher told the district board last night.

John Cook, business teacher at Redwood High School and chairman of a business education workshop held in the district last month, declared:

"We think business economics has been overlooked in education. We think this should be required of more students, for the benefit of the well-rounded, well-educated individual.

"Our principal recommendation is that the district undertake a feasibility study of the seven-period day."

About 50 students at each of the district's three high schools now start school at 7:30 a.m., one hour earlier than the others, in a voluntary seven-period day, Supt. Chester G. Carlisle told a reporter after the meeting.

Carlisle said the program is in its fourth year, following an earlier study of the seven-period day. Most of the seven-period students take physical education at 7:30 a.m., freeing a later period for an elective course.

The Tamalpais Union High School District board also:

1. Conveyed a parcel of Redwood High School property to the City of Larkspur to extend Doherty Drive to Lucky Drive and Highway 101, work on fill to be started by the city next month.

2. Hired Helene M. Hoffman of San Francisco, former Sequoia High School teacher at Redwood City, as district teacher of speech to the aurally handicapped.

3. Accepted as complete a parking lot at Sir Francis Drake High School accommodating about 60 cars.

4. Awarded contracts for electronics laboratory equipment for Tamalpais High School to these low bidders: Wurtz Co., $3,381.56; Zack Electronics, $3,350.99, and San Francisco Radio Co., $236.39, and for dictation and transcription machines for Redwood and Tamalpais high schools to IBM Corp., low bidder at $4,960.39

Trustee J. M. Stubblebine was absent, attending a meeting of the Marin Mental Health Advisory Board.

Moose Meeting

Thee possibility of building a hall will be the topic when C. L. Swan, director for Northern California, meets with the Novato Moose Lodge at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Cloud Five Restaurant.

32,217 Volts

When retail outlets plug in, merchandise moves

Sales success can be electric when advertisers "connect" with consumers through the Independent-Journal. Ask Macy's, Wards, Penney's. Ask Ames Ford, United Markets. Ask hundreds of smaller businessmen who consistently advertise in the I-J.

They use Marin's only daily newspaper for one reason only: results. They've tried it, tested it. They've found that the I-J's "32,217 volts" is the responsive readership of our 32,217 subscriber families—the most concentrated buying force in Marin County.

When you, as an advertiser, "plug in" the I-J's direct sales current, here's what happens:

Your merchandise, your services, are immediately in contact with 2/3 of all families in Marin County.

Your message enters homes through a wanted medium, not a throwaway, not a shopper. People buy the I-J because they want it and read it; it's "their" newspaper, not a doorstep publication with no home.

You know what you're buying in circulation. No guesswork. No claims. The I-J is Marin's only newspaper certified by the Audit Bureau of Circulations—the "gold standard" of circulation measurement in the U.S.

Your advertising works in the buying climate of cover-to-cover readership... with an audience that prefers to read advertising in the I-J. For example, Marin households prefer to read food advertising in the I-J 84% to 4% over that in any other daily newspaper.*

You reach more of Marin's larger, "big consumer" families—7 out of 10 homes of 3 or more members, and 72% of households with 5 or more.*

Your message "gets home," stirs buying action . . . because the I-J is close to its readers, close to their interests.

Everyone Controls The Dogs But Nobody Worries Cats

Adoption by the Mill Valley City Council of a so-called "animal control ordinance" is expected to be followed by similar action by other cities of Marin County, in line with an already existing county ordinance covering the unincorporated areas.

The measure seems to be actually a dog control ordinance in spite of the apparently sweeping nature of its title, and its purpose is to make dogs quit being nuisances. Or more accurately, the purpose is to make owners of dogs quit letting their dogs be nuisances.

Under an "animal control ordinance" it would seem that cats, amusing but predatory creatures, should similarly be governed, either directly or through their owners; but not so. The catch is that under California law a dog is the personal property of its owner whereas as a rule a cat seemingly is free as the breeze unless especially acknowledged.

Thus with other animals less specifically "owned"—it's only the dogs which must take the rap of the ordinance. Though renowned as the great friend of man, it is the dog which can't run at large without danger of impoundment, which must be restrained if considered dangerous, which must stay off private property, at least in theory. Its habitual howling, yelping or barking can be declared a public nuisance, apparently quite distinct from the private nuisance of feline courtship under one's windows at 3 a.m.

It seems grossly unfair that such special restraints should be put upon the dog, while the human powers that be throw up their hands and confess themselves largely powerless when confronted by the predatory cat.

But as Peter H. Behr discovered when himself a Mill Valley councilman, it's a mug's game to try for feline-canine equity under the law. The fury of a woman scorned shrinks to microscopic proportions by comparison with the public tumult of cat-lovers when their pets seem legally menaced.

But it is the lordly cat himself which probably staves off such efforts even more drastically than the people it owns. (A neat distinction, be it noted, in comparison with California's view of the dog.)

Cats through all history have been successful in resisting control because—well, just because; because of cat nature. The cat can't be controlled because he won't be controlled. He doesn't reason the matter out or indulge in legal argument; he just roams, hunts, frolics, fights and otherwise does what comes naturally with no thought of or concern over any check.

We are paying taxes today for the specific purpose of landing a 100 per cent American citizen on the moon in the relatively near future, confident of our ability and hoping it may be of some use. Yet amazingly we fail to meet even such common problems in our own Marin County as the fact that we all grow old, and we all catch cold.

However, the cat seems a problem even more universally deemed insoluble. Man's pride flinches and turns away. So we kick the dog around because he takes it, wags his tail and comes back for more. A moral somewhere?

The Day The Root Beer Exploded

We doubt that many Marinites make their own root beer in these days of canned and packaged foods and drinks. But when we were youngsters almost every family turned out a batch or two for hot weather.

It was wonderful, yeasty-tasting stuff, quite unlike the bottled beverage bought at stores which masquerades under the same name.

Almost everyone who produced homemade root beer remembers the day or night it blew up. It seldom exploded by the single bottle. Rather, it went off like a treacherous string of firecrackers, delighting and distressing the root beer-thirsty youngsters.

It was messy, but great fun in those innocent times.

REGARDLESS OF BASE PACT

Spain Wants To Preserve Friendly U.S. Relations

By PHIL NEWSOM

MADRID, Spain (UPI)—Spanish officials emphasize that maintaining close relations with the United States is a keystone of Spanish foreign policy.

They say this will continue to be true regardless of the current outcome of Washington negotiations for the renewal of the U.S.-Spanish base agreement.

The agreement, concluded in 1953 and due to expire this Sept. 26, covers U.S. Strategic Air Command bases at Torrejon outside Madrid, Moron outside Seville and Zaragoza midway between Madrid and Barcelona, and the Mediterranean naval base at Rota.

GENERALISSIMO Francisco Franco's government called for a re-examination of the treaty terms on the grounds that after 10 years changing conditions justified certain changes.

Government officials here are wary of describing the exact changes sought or the progress of the negotiations, which they describe as being in a "delicate" stage.

But they say that since 1953 the Soviet Union has achieved parity with the United States in nuclear warfare and that a cover of fighter planes is no longer sufficient for Spain's defenses. Therefore, they say that Spain is taking an even greater risk now than before in permitting the bases in her soil.

Such an argument lends weight to reports that, among other things, Spain believes that further U.S. military aid should be given in the form of modern weapons and that it should be free.

THE U.S. POSITION, according to these reports, is that further modernization of Spanish armed forces should be at Spanish expense.

Under terms of the agreement, negotiations for renewal may continue six months after the expiration date and if no agreement is possible then the bases should be vacated by the end of the year.

No one expects this to happen.

Although Spain is known to believe she should have membership in NATO, Spanish officials deny vehemently that NATO membership also is a condition of further use of the bases.

SPAIN HAS applied for associate membership in the European common market and regrets the coolness which has developed.

CRAMPED WAY TO FIGHT A WAR

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Beware Of These He-Men, Full Of Vim And Vigor

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — People were always telling me that I should get more exercise.

"Basically," they would say, "you have a fine physique, and temperamentally you are the sweetest guy this side of Guy Lombardo. It's a shame to let yourself go to pot like this."

I knew that they were right and I wanted to turn over a new leaf. But I didn't have the strength to lift it.

I might have gone on deteriorating indefinitely had it not been for the President's Council on Physical Fitness. That worthy agency recently published a book of adult exercises that completely erased my childhood fear of calisthenics.

I began following the program outlined in the book, except on one important point.

RATHER THAN doing a few exercises at a time, as the book recommended, I did them all at one time. The result was a near disaster.

The first indication I had of the dangers of over-exercising came when I saw an old friend on the street. I rushed over to shake his hand and in doing so broke three of his fingers.

Since he had always been rather fragile, I did not attach any great significance to the incident. My awakening began a couple of days later when my left front tire went flat.

I got the jack out of the trunk and put it under the front bumper. Nothing unusual about that. But the first time I pushed down on the jack handle my car flipped over on its back.

"WHAT DID YOU do to the car?" my wife cried.

"I don't know," I said. "There must have been too much leverage somewhere."

Secretly, however, I was beginning to suspect that my muscles were firing up faster than my bodily coordination was equipped to handle. This deduction was confirmed the very next evening.

When I get home from work in the evening, my 2-year-old son customarily runs out to greet me. I make a practice of picking him up and playfully tossing him into the air. Standard father stuff.

On this evening, however, when I tossed him into the air he didn't come back down.

I knew then that I had erred in not building up to physical fitness gradually. I simply no longer knew my own strength.

They caught my son in a fireman's net in a neighboring county. No real harm was done but I'm working hard to get myself back out of condition.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Golden Gate Bridge directors rejected all proposals for toll reduction.

Overruling several protests, the Richardson Bay Sanitary District board awarded a $163,000 contract to the S & Q Construction Co. for construction of lines connecting to the Sausalito-Marin City sewage system.

20 YEARS AGO

Protest by the Marin Bar Assn. failed to move county supervisors from their decision to shift the Justice Court to the old Coleman School.

Northwest Pacific ferry slips abandoned at Sausalito were being revamped after Maritime Commission announcement that they will again be put into use for Marinship.

TRY AND STOP ME

A young novelist began his speech at a Book and Author luncheon by quoting from a letter he had received: "You are the finest young writer in America today. You combine the skills of O'Hara, Faulkner, Hemingway, and Fitzgerald. Furthermore, you are the handsomest man I've ever encountered."

The audience was obviously taken aback by the young novelist's conceit—until he added, "Incidentally, the letter is signed 'Mother.'"

At the end of a gala vaudeville show for the inmates at Leavenworth Prison, the Master of Ceremonies enthused, "And now, fellows, let's give a great big hand to all those who made this evening possible: the F.B.I., the Treasury Department, the Secret Service, the local police force . . . ."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Beware Pretty Red Leaves!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I enjoy very much your editorial comments about nature. These pretty red leaves (sample enclosed) reminded me that you usually write a yearly warning to newcomers to Marvelous Marin not to pick the red leaves.

If you write such a warning again this year, you might want to know the phrase, "Leaves in three, let them be." The sample shows this very clearly.

In addition you might let your readers know, that even if these pretty red leaves weren't toxic and aggravating it is very thoughtless to pick bits of beauty from our roadsides. (And besides it is illegal.)

Thanks for listening. Please keep commenting on the natural side of Marvelous Marin.

Let The Steam Blow Off

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This is unashamedly a fan letter to Mr. Randall Gould and Mr. Bruce Coleman. I love their delightful sense of humor interspersed with some controversial and interesting anecdotes.

When readers write with a "chip" on shoulder I feel it is beneficial to their health though it may interfere with institutions who treat psychotics and neurotics.

It does contribute to the general health and welfare of a community for individual citizens to "blow off steam." No one of us is always "right or wrong," "black or white." There are many shades of meaning and color.

As Pierre Monteaux so aptly said when traveling through the South and being refused service in a restaurant because of being "white"—"But I'm not white, but pink, dear lady."

Viet Nam Dictatorship Strains Kennedy Patience To Limit

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, fed up with the developing chaos in South Viet Nam, has pulled a veil over American actions there.

That the United States will act seems certain. He left the how clouded over.

But Kennedy's very vagueness at his recent news conference, or rather the way he chose to be vague, can be interpreted as ominous for the dictatorship of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

The United States has pumped billions of dollars in aid into Viet Nam — plus troops — to fight the war against Communists, fearing that if Viet Nam is lost all Southeast Asia may be lost.

BUT DIEM and his Roman Catholic family, in a country more than 70 per cent Buddhist, have turned the war into hash and brought the country to internal crisis by their repressions against Buddhists and students.

Some American actions, or pressures, or warnings may have already started.

The State Department has denied that this country's new ambassador to Viet Nam, Henry Cabot Lodge, has told Diem to throw out his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, head of the secret police. Nhu has acquired a sinister stature.

But strangely in the midst of all the domestic turmoil two other extremely important members of Diem's family have already left the country.

ONE, NHU'S arrogant wife, a storm center in the trouble with the Buddhists, went to Belgrade to attend an interparliamentary conference and will later go to New York.

The other, Diem's brother, Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thuc, visited Rome where his scheduled audience with Pope Paul VI was canceled.

The Pope has said he is profoundly disturbed by events in Viet Nam. Thuc later said in New York the Vatican had ordered him to shut up on the situation in his country. In short, he was silenced.

Still left in Viet Nam with Diem are his brother, Nhu, and another brother, a powerful but seldom-mentioned figure, Ngo Dinh Can, who holds no official position but is boss of the central part of the country.

BOTH THE Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations have handled Diem very gingerly because, so the reports in Washington go, he was strongly anti-Communist and it would be difficult, if not impossible, to find anyone to replace him.

It seems the Diem family traded on the American belief in their indispensability and ran both the war and the country with a high hand. The breaking point started with the conflict with the Buddhists last May, reaching a recent climax.

Twenty-two senators have introduced a resolution putting Congress on record as favoring a halt to all aid to Diem unless he abandons policies of "repression" and seeks popular support.

Kennedy soon afterward told the press that he didn't think it advisable to state all views at this time but "they will be made more clear as time goes on."

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Can't Cut Funds To Diem, Congressmen Tell Kennedy

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Two powerful congressional Democrats have told President Kennedy that the U.S. is courting sure disaster in South Vietnam if Pres. Ngo Dinh Diem's government is ousted or greatly weakened by the withholding of U.S. aid.

This grim warning from Speaker John McCormack (D-Mass.), and Rep. Edna Kelly (D-N.Y.), a ranking member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, was made privately to the President to blunt an undercover State Department plan to oust the Diem regime by cutting U.S. funds.

In separate private meetings, the two influential House legislators cautioned the President to obtain more complete and accurate information on "the true situation in South Vietnam" before making any aid cuts that would injure the Vietnamese military capacity or topple President Diem.

SPEAKER McCORMACK and Representative Kelly, who successfully teamed up in 1955 to block a similar State Department effort to oust Diem, stressed that "inaccurate and erroneous information" on the South Vietnam leader's internal dispute with the Buddhists was being circulated by the press and some State Department officials to the detriment of the present South Vietnam government.

The legislators urged the President to personally examine the evidence gathered by Diem's security authorities showing that the Communist Viet Congs, in waging their guerrilla war to take over the country, has infiltrated the Buddhist ranks and were responsible for triggering the bloody riots against the government.

Representative Kelly also flatly challenged the State Department's private estimate that the war against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas cannot now be won under the Diem regime by reminding the President:

"Almost no one bothers to point out that, faced with insurmountable obstacles, with his country torn apart and overrun by Communists, bandits, and warring sects, President Diem has not only managed to survive for nine years but has made considerable progress in bringing order, freedom, justice, and opportunity for a better life to most of his nation.

"NO ONE bothers to point out that without him, the one element of stability present in Vietnam could disappear, plunging Vietnam and all of Indochina into chaos, completely undermining our position in that strategic part of the globe."

Speaker McCormack and Mrs. Kelly both made it clear they would publicly oppose "selective aid cuts" to pressure Diem, warning that these State Department tactics could endanger the Administration's foreign aid program still pending in Congress.

In reply, the President gave assurances to both legislators that their views would be carefully considered in the full-scale review of U.S.-Vietnam policy now underway.

A Bird Of A Slip—'Twas Not Mrs. Heron But Mrs. Crain

THE FIRST concrete move to get the islands in Highway 101 landscaped through Novato was taken by the Novato City Council last week. The council told Edmund Mahany, director of parks and recreation, to draw up plans for landscaping them.

This was not a shot in the dark. Instead, it came after much planning and exploratory work on the part of the city government. The most recent of the meetings was on Aug. 31, when Mayor M. E. Silva, Councilman Lucile Canon and City Administrator J. Julien Baget took up the matter with R. D. Kinsey, assistant district engineer for maintenance for the State Division of Highways.

Kinsey said that the state highway division's present policy is to participate financially only in freeways. However, if the city or some interested parties would draw up a landscaping plan and submit it through the city, the state would consider it.

THE STATE would review the plan and make comments on it. When it had been approved by the state division of highways, the state would then consider the maintenance of such landscaping, for example, watering and mowing the lawns.

So the wheels have started turning. Maybe by next summer the islands will be things of beauty — green grass under green trees instead of the present brown weeds and debris.

Such landscaping is bound to cost money. If the State Division of Highways doesn't have the money, there is a ready-made solution to finding it.

How about stationing a highway patrolman on the highway for a few days? The money for tickets from speeding trucks and illegal left turns at the islands would more than pay for the landscaping within a short time.

IT'S BEGINNING to look as if the fourth try for merging two school districts in Novato is starting to shape up. After the Booz, Allen Hamilton report came in, that was one of the alternatives.

So now the two boards are starting to talk up meetings aimed at another election. The first two elections were defeated in the San Jose District and the third election lost by only 30 votes in Novato.

Now if the fourth election fails, there will be several people claiming they need a fifth.

YOUR REPORTER was vainly trying to run down some information the other day. Mrs. Marian Silva, Novato's first lady, said it might be obtained from a Mrs. Heron at 892-2830.

So the number was dialed and a woman's voice answered.

"Is this Mrs. Heron?"

"No, this is Mrs. Crane," came the answer.

Quickly my mind raced over what could have happened. I though it must have been a Freudian slip on the part of Mrs. Silva. She probably had given me the wrong wading bird when she remembered the name.

However, it turned out I'd dialed 2930, which is Mrs. Crain, not 2830, Mrs. Heron.

Bandwagon Rolls In Senate

An evaluation by Research Institute of America of the temper of Washington finds that "the nuclear test treaty bandwagon is rolling fast, won't stop short of Senate ratification."

Important legislation likely to get through Congress somehow, in addition to a tax cut and some sort of civil rights law, is expected to include:

Railroad labor action even if only stopgap.

Help for depressed areas.

Thousands Of Quakes Happen Every Day

'Who's Choking?' Dodgers Chortle; Cards On The Spot

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers hoped today they had finally shoved the "choke" charge down the throats of their most caustic critics.

"They've been accusing us of choking. Now we'll see what happens. The shoe is on the other foot."

These words were uttered by Don Drysdale, Los Angeles' right-handed ace, following the Dodgers' vital 3-1 triumph over St. Louis last night that widened their first-place lead to two terribly big games over the Cardinals.

"Lew Burdett (St. Louis veteran pitcher) was giving us the business all through the game," added the 6-foot-6 Drysdale. "He was clutching his throat while sitting in the dugout. All that did was to make our guys more determined."

Burdette's obvious reference to choking apparently did not affect southpaw Johnny Podres who hurled a masterful three-hitter through eight innings before tiring and giving way to Ron Perranoski. The peerless bullpen specialist mopped up in the ninth. It was his 64th relief appearance and 18th save.

The Dodgers got to St. Louis starter Ernie Broglio and southpaw reliever Bobby Shantz for eight hits, including three by Willie Davis and two by Maury Wills. The two stole four bases and scored two of the three Dodger runs.

The pressure now undoubtedly is on the Cardinals who face the added hurdle tonight of beating Sandy Koufax, the best in the business.

Even if they do and follow it up with another victory in Wednesday night's finale, the Dodgers still would leave St. Louis in first place by percentage points.

Furthermore, the league leaders will have the advantage of playing all their nine remaining games at home, three against the last-place New York Mets, three against eighth-place Pittsburgh and three against fifth-place Philadelphia.

The Cards will play the Cincinnati Reds five games and the Chicago Cubs two, four of these on the road.

Curt Simmons, the rejuvenated veteran, will oppose Koufax, who owns a 23-5 record that includes three straight triumphs against the Cardinals. Simmons, six years older than Koufax, 27, is pitching the best ball of his career. He has won 15 games, the last three by shutouts.

It was only the second loss in the last 21 games for the Cards who trailed the Dodgers by seven games just two weeks ago. It also ended a 10-game winning streak.

"This was the 14th victory in our last 20 games," said Drysdale. "So how can anyone say we're choking up? We've played great ball, but they were phenomenal. Even phenoms can lose, too."

The Dodgers scored first against the Cardinals, getting to Broglio for a run in the sixth on a double by Maury Wills, his steal of third and a single by Tommy Davis.

Stan Musial's homer—one of only three hits off Podres — tied it in the seventh.

In the eighth, with Broglio tiring, the Cardinal manager sent in a pinch hitter, then called on Bobby Shantz to hold the Dodgers in the ninth.

Ron Fairly lashed Shantz' first pitch for a double. Then Davis, who was hitting only .232 going into the game but had already collected two hits and stolen two bases, lined a single to right field. Fairly slid across the plate with the lead run on a close play.

A throwing error by Julian Javier let in the other run.

RHUBARB—St. Louis shortstop Dick Groat (right) stomps away from umpires after losing a heated argument in last night's game against the Dodgers. Manager Johnny Keane (5) and third baseman Ken Boyer (background) continued argument to no avail. Cardinals claimed interference on a missed double-play attempt in ninth inning, but umps ruled in favor of Dodgers who won crucial game, 3-1. (AP Wirephoto)

Marin Grid Slate Moves Into Full Swing This Week

Marin County's young 1963 football season moves into full swing this weekend with eight games on the schedule, including six on local soil.

Of special interest will be the season debuts of College of Marin's Tars, the Marin Catholic Wildcats and San Rafael Military Academy Cadets. Redwood, San Rafael, Novato, Terra Linda and Drake will be seeing action for the second time. Tamalpais will be idle.

Coach Dick Read will unveil his College of Marin Tars at Kentfield Friday night against Menlo College. The 50-man Tar squad—largest in years—will feature two All-Conference stars from last season—tackle Lyle Baucom, the 6-5, 255-pound giant, and guard Don Burrows, 5-8, 200.

Marin Catholic lifts the lid on its schedule with a Friday afternoon game at Kentfield against Healdsburg, 3:30 um against Healdsburg, 3:30 o'clock.

The SRMA Cadets also open Friday, 3:15 p.m. against Salesian High at the Cadet field.

HOME GAMES

San Rafael, Drake and Redwood will play home games while Terra Linda and Novato will travel.

Here's their schedule:

Friday—Terra Linda at Jefferson High, 3:30 p.m.; San Rafael vs. St. Mary's of Berkeley at San Rafael, 8 p.m.; Novato at Ukiah, 8 p.m.

Saturday — Redwood vs. Montgomery of Santa Rosa at Kentfield, 1:30 p.m.; Drake vs. Oceana at Kentfield, 8 p.m.

In last week's opening action only Drake and Terra Linda scored victories while San Rafael, Tamalpais, Novato and Redwood suffered setbacks.

Marichal Gets His 23rd Win

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Juan Marichal apparently is immune to the contagious disappointment that has spread like virus through the San Francisco Giants' clubhouse in recent weeks.

The tireless Latin chalked up his 23rd win of the season last night with a 4-3 decision over Milwaukee's Braves, and pitched as if he was never aware of the team's weakened condition.

For Juan, the performance put him beside the Yankees' Whitey Ford and Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers as one of the three 23 game winners in the major league. It bettered his previous best season by five games.

But, for the fading Giants it only solidified their chances of holding onto third place.

Juan's achievement—he has now won more than one-fourth of the Giants' 82 victories — pushed the San Franciscans 2½ games out in front of Milwaukee.

For the Giants now, the deciding number is 2. Two wins by either the Dodgers or Cardinals—or two defeats of the Giants, and even a mathematical chance for the pennant is lost.

CEPEDA HOMERS

Orlando Cepeda furnished some encouragement for Marichal in the fifth when he swatted his 31st home run for the season. The next inning, however, the Baby Bull dropped a pop fly and put Juan on the spot.

With none out, Hank Aaron singled and stole second. Marichal fanned Eddie Mathews, Joe Torre looped a lazy fly behind first, and Cepeda dropped it, with Aaron on continuing to third and Torre going to second.

Marichal walked Gene Oliver intentionally, loading the bases, and then forced Denis Menke to ground to Harvey Kuenn at third. Kuenn threw out Aaron at the plate.

Juan put the last nine Braves down in order, handing the Braves their second consecutive loss.

The Giants scored their runs in ones — in the first, third, fourth and Cepeda's homer in the fifth.

Milwaukee will stage a pregame pageant tonight in honor of Warren Spahn with 40,000 fans expected.

And on "Warren Spahn Night" it will be Spahn who starts for the Braves.

Phillies Pick Dodgers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, in a poll, have picked the Los Angeles Dodgers to win the National League pennant this year.

Fifteen of the Phillies picked the Dodgers and 12 thought the St. Louis Cardinals would win.

Eagles Star Is Suspended

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A sorry Don Burroughs, the Philadelphia Eagles' defensive back, will not be present at Sunday's National Football League game here against the St. Louis Cardinals because of a disciplinary order from NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Rozelle not only barred Burroughs from the game as the result of the player's strenuous protests Sunday against a decision in the Eagles-Pittsburgh Steelers' 21-21 tie game, he told Burroughs to keep away from Franklin Field.

The one-game suspension is without pay.

The action, Rozelle said, is because Burroughs "ran after a game official (field judge Dan Tehan) who was going to his dressing quarters on the opposite side of the field from the Eagles' locker room. Burrough's grabbed or shoved the official. In the confusion a second official (referee Bill Downes) was struck across the face, apparently inadvertently by Burroughs before the player ran to his dressing room."

Burroughs apologized to the officials.

"I was wrong-I did not mean to go as far as I did in expressing my feelings at the officials' call," he said.

Tillie's Baby Wins

Impressive Comeback By Machen

SANTA MONICA (AP)—Heavyweight Eddie Machen, whose bright boxing career seemed at an end a year ago from a mental and financial breakdown, was well launched on his comeback today with visions of fighting Cassius Clay and eventually heavyweight champion Sonny Liston.

A surprisingly aggressive Machen, who said he intends to continue to carry the fight to his opponents, knocked out trial horse Ollie Wilson of Miami, Fla., in 2:19 of the sixth round of their scheduled 10-rounder last night.

Machen, despite his long layoff, was fairly sharp and weighed a trim 196. Wilson scaled 206.

The 31-year-old Machen, who now lives in Beverly Hills and has a money backer in well-to-do Walter Minskoff, said he was nervous before this fight.

"I think I was more tense than in any fight in my life because of all the trouble and everything," Machen explained.

His next fight probably will be with Alonzo Johnson of Pittsburgh around Oct. 12. Wilson was a late substitute for Johnson, who bowed out because of a flu attack.

Johnson was at ringside.

Machen said he would like to fight Clay as soon as possible and then try Liston again. Machen is the only fighter to last 12 rounds with Liston. They boxed in 1960 in Seattle.

Machen, from the outset, was the aggressor, but Wilson stood toe-to-toe with him in an exciting fifth round. Wilson was knocked partly off balance and took a mandatory eight. In the sixth Machen finally hammered him down in a neutral corner and he took the 10 count on one knee from referee Jimmy Wilson.

Young Backs Hold Key To Stanford Gridiron Hopes

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A couple of youngsters who have had very little in the way of big-time college grid experience may send the Stanford Indians on the warpath this fall, Coach John Ralston indicated today.

The boys are sophomore Ray Handley, 190-pound halfback from Reno, Nev., who has the speed and maneuverability of a gazelle; and junior Dick Ragsdale, a 180-pound converted quarterback from Medford, Ore., who also will operate as a halfback.

"This boy Handley is a real bright spot in our plans," said Ralston. "He'll give us a lot of running punch from his right halfback spot."

As for Ragsdale, who came to Stanford as a highly touted quarterback and was shifted to the halfback spot in spring practice, the plans are to use him until he runs out of breath.

"He'll be used on both offense and defense," says Ralston, who is trying to whip the team into shape for Saturday's opener against San Jose State. "As a matter of fact, he'll be lucky if he ever gets off the field."

Ralston and other regional coaches met at the opening session of the Northern California Football Writers' Assn. yesterday.

"We are making some progress in our scrimmages," said Ralston. "But we definitely are not ready for San Jose State Saturday."

Coach Bob Titchenal of San Jose State admitted he's going to have a good team this year.

"If the line comes through, we have the backs to make a good ball club," said Titchenal. He is counting heavily on quarterbacks Rand Carter and Ken Berry to pull the club through.

Coach Marv Levy of California pointed out that his whole squad had only three seniors on it and that there was a good chance that three sophomores, guard John Garamendi, flanker back Jerry Mosher and tackle Roger Foster, would be starters.

"I'm still working at selecting our starters for the Iowa State game on Saturday," said Levy. "This is a very young team. But Craig Morton, our quarterback, has been very sharp in his passing, although he missed all of last week due to a slight muscle strain."

Harry Burrell, spokesman for Iowa State, said the Cyclones would have a good, representative team.

"But our scrimmage on Saturday was lousy," he said. "Maybe we'll shape up."

Sausalito Pony Champs Honored

The Sausalito IDESST Lodge, sponsors of the team that won the championship of the Southern Marin Pony League, hosted the players at Sabella's Restaurant at an awards and recognition night last week.

Lodge members Tony Brazil and Manuel Silva presented trophies to the boys and team manager Harold Gaulke presented the Southern Marin League championship trophy to lodge member Jack Cunha.

It was the first time the Sausalito team has won the league championship.

Members of the Sausalito team are Kim Carrigg, Ron Gilliam, John Kowski, Peter Laufer, Philip Martino, Harold McDonald, Kam McLeod, Larry Medieros, Tom Rice, Billy Schultz, Robert Schultz, Michael Swift, Gregg Tellis, Paul Thompson and Steve White.

Gilliam, Kowski and Telis were named members of the league's all-star team.

Mrs. Borzini Wins Tennis Tourney

Mrs. John Borzini of San Rafael was the winer of the first monthly round-robin tournament of the San Anselmo Women's Tennis Club last Wednesday at Albert Park courts.

The club's tournament committee announced the ranking of the members. They are Mrs. Jack Murphy, Mrs. Alfonse Laura, Mrs. Robert Hansen, Mrs. Howard Carlson, Mrs. Borzini, Mrs. Richard Havel, Mrs. Roderick Martinelli and Mrs. Fred Rowley.

Marin Soccer Team Needs More Players

Krier said tryouts will be held on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. on the San Rafael High School football field. The season will start next month.

Giants Aren't A 'Hungry' Club; Act Like They Don't Like Money

CONNOLLY

The fellow who wrote that little Hawaiian ditty entitled—"One-two-three-four, sometimes I wish there were more," must have had in mind the remaining games the Giants play before the curtain rings down on the 1963 season.

What happens to the Giants from now on is purely personal. They either get a small bite of the World Series loot or they get nothing. The point at issue, however, is that the Giants don't act like a ball club striving to get a "liddie-bit" of the cash spread. Rather they perform like a group that thinks, "If we can't get it all—the 'ell with it."

Chub Feeney, a very frugal vice president of the Giants, cracked late in the summer, "The Giants play like a ball club that doesn't like money."

No matter what you may think of the S.F. club relative to its speed, intelligence or know how, you'll have to admit no one ever accused them of being a "hungry club," which in the parlance of the sport means "they'd do anything to collect money." Not the Giants. They travel first class, wear fine clothes, get paid well, and only at contract time do any of them discuss finances.

SO IT is no surprise that they head for the barn at Candlestick this week showing no outward signs of remorse. They are just as happy-go-lucky aggregation that finds its fun where it is and makes the best of it.

After the present series at Milwaukee with the Braves, the Giants waltz back to S.F. for three games with the Mets on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, then beef with the Phils in three games to say bye-bye to the 1963 campaign.

When you think of the Giants as having folded in the stretch you blame pitching or the lack of it. But truly that is only half of it. If you compare the Giants' win and loss pitching records with the Dodgers, we don't look so bad.

YOU'VE GOT to go deeper and find out why it is that the Giant staff doesn't suffer in comparison with the Dodgers and yet is so far back.

Defensively the Giants lacked "it" all season and in hitting, where they are supposed to excel, they excel only in one department — that of homerun making by four or five members of the club. The rest of the team isn't hotsy totsy in the average as a pennant aspiring club ought to be.

Last year the Giants copped the National League pennant and scoffed at the Dodgers doing an el foldo, one of the L.A. bosses cracked the Dodgers would have won it by 10 games if they had the same club as Alvin Dark posesses.

By all the rights of the game the St. Louis Cardinals have a better ball club and a harder hitting team than the Dodgers and if they can just collar them before the finish, it will tell a mighty interesting story of who's who in the National League. Especially among the managers.

OUTLOOK IS PROMISING, BUT . . .

Predicted Striper Run Fails

Can it be that a majority of piscatorial prognosticators be wrong? They can be! They where when they predicted that Sunday, Sept. 15 would be the day when striper striving in the San Pablo Bay would break wide open. (Count this writer as among the losers.) My records for the past many years indicated that this date would be the opener, but, whereas a few bass have been caught the past two days, and the outlook is promising, no real run took place.

From the Marin side of the bay Joe Nerviani of Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia reported Jim Hammel of Novato landing bass to 10 pounds bait fishing off the S.P. Buoy opposite Point Pinole along with a couple of nice flounders. Frank Joseph reported one of his boats out of Rodeo taking a limit of perch and one 10-pound bass off Buoy 6, and several bank fishermen succeeding with pile worms as bait.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Frank, one of the real oldtimers, told me his reports over the years agreed with mine, but the opening of the fall run of bass occasionally was postponed until the 23rd of September in his book.

The lads and lassies who have been baiting up with pile worms and fishing from the rocky shore off Berkeley's Ashby Avenue in the late evenings have done exceptionally well, according to the Sport Fishing Center in Berkeley. "Dave Kinley's boat, the Evie K, is now back in service," I was told. Dave decked seven salmon off Duxbury on Saturday, the Gi Gi had 13 salmon to 38 pounds, the Hazel B, three to 10 pounds and the Lancer did a good job in the same area. The Sea Bee had one Schenley among the 13 brought to port.

Seems that the salmon schools have broken up into small groups. When a boat hit the school, action was fast and furious, but only lasted a short time. It was then necessary to hunt up another school.

CLUB SPIRIT — Members of the Marin Rod and Gun Club volunteered their services recently in helping to construct a new floating dock as an added facility to the club's boat launching ramp.

ROD-GUN NOTEBOOK

A Busy Schedule For Marin Club

By STEVE LATO

With the windup of the vacation season, activity in the Marin Rod and Gun Club is taking on a greater momentum. The Calendar of Events is indicative of the busy schedule currently facing the organization. In order to gain the maximum accomplishment, all committee members are urged to attend the meetings of their respective committees. Additionally, members in general should make every effort to engage in committee work as the most effective means of helping the club with its programs and projects. Select the committee of your particular interest, then contact its chairman at the earliest opportunity.

NOTES TO YOU: Fisherman-of the Month honors go to Tony Schlagl for his 26-pound striper taken at the pier on Aug. 20 . . . The following new members were welcomed into the club at the August meeting: Anton Aronov, Dr. George Desalernos and William Lyon . . . Incidentally, many favorable comments were received about the picture "The Four Seasons" which was shown at that meeting. Another fine film will be offered Friday night for your viewing enjoyment. By all means, bring the youngsters . . . Speaking of youngsters, the date has now been set for our annual Christmas party. Chairman Don Donaldson has designated Saturday evening, Dec. 14 as the big night for this very popular affair. More about this later, but it's not too early to make your plans for coming out with the small fry . . . A reminder: Under the revised by-laws, nominations for officers and directors will be held in October, with elections in November. In other words, both important functions have been advanced one month . . . Extra bonus: Persons joining the club during the period October through December are entitled to membership for the entire year 1964 with the one dues payment . . . At the Sept. 3 meeting of the board of directors, John Stirling was welcomed aboard as a new director. Secretary Paul Ware is looking forward to the efficient help of M. Zell, newly designated assistant secretary . . . Those two giant bait box awards were missed again last month. Card numbers of R. Firstenfeld and Col. Dean Gough were drawn at the meeting but, unfortunately, both members were absent . . . The Marin Conservation Council has set the third Wednesday of each month as meeting night . . . Dr. Gail Adams represented the club at the Sportsmen's Council of the Redwood Empire session held at Laytonville on Sept. 15 . . . Word comes from Schenley Sportsmen's Club that there were 37 new winners of salmon awards last week. This brings the season's total winners to 246 as against only 93 for the same period last year. Top winners to date is a 62-pounder taken Aug. 13.

NEWS OF THE COMMITTEES: House chairman Monty Marzetta wishes to remind all committee chairmen to furnish him the dates of any proposed committee meetings so that he may take the necessary arrangements in advance . . . Leo Ciucci has purchased 39 tables to complete the setup for the clubhouse. Leo was able to acquire them at an unusually low price . . . Boating chairman Ken Watts wishes to thank all those who assisted in constructing the new floating dock for the boat ramp . . . Joe Delchini, gardening-landscaping chairman, deserves praise for his consistently fine work in maintaining the grounds in such attractive condition . . . President Albert Ferrari conducted the Aug. 28 meeting of the conservation committee in the absence of the chairman and vice-chairman who were away on vacation . . . Stan Fontez, chairman of the finance committee, will hold a meeting of his committee on Oct. 3 . . . Publicity chairman Art Clay is making further strides in rounding out an effective publicity program. Art says he can use more members on his committee. Any volunteers? . . . Chairman Ray Augusto is in the midst of hectic preparations for this month's family dinner. Read the announcement on this page.

MRGC Recommends Purchase Of 'Pool'

Marin Rod and Gun Club sponsored a resolution recommending the public acquisition of the fishing area comprising "White House Pool" on Lagunitas Creek at the head of Tomales Bay at the last meeting of the Marin Conservation Council.

The meeting was held at the Marin Rod and Gun clubhouse at Point San Quentin on Aug. 21 with Mrs. Harold Summers, vice chairman of the organization, presiding.

Another resolution which was presented with the recommendation of adoption, sponsored by the Marin Conservation League, urged that immediate steps be taken by appropriate official agencies to preserve Richardson Bay and assure its orderly development in accordance with the following principles:

1. Obtain by negotiation or purchase the necessary open water for a floodway for the watershed of Richardson Bay.
2. Adopt, reaffirm and enforce necessary legislation to prohibit further filling of Richardson Bay until pierhead and bulkhead lines are permanently established in accordance with a reasonable master plan for the area.
3. Maintain a large open water basin by public acquisition of necessary tidelands.
4. Assure the right of public access since such access constitutes an important public ownership which must not be sold, traded or in any way lost.

TWO FISHING PARTIES SET FOR OCTOBER

Two October fishing parties for the Marin Rod and Gun Club Women's Auxiliary will be held on the club pier at Point San Quentin, the first on Oct. 1 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., and the second one on Oct. 15, same time.

Next regular meeting of the group will be on Sept. 24 at the clubhouse at 8 p.m., it was announced. Al Giddings Jr. showed color slides of skin diving at the last auxiliary meeting.

The women chartered Louis Ritlaw's party boat, "Ma-Ru," for a salmon fishing party which was scheduled for today.

Family Dinners To Resume At Club Saturday

After a brief pause in the schedule of Saturday night family dinners due to the vacation season, the Marin Rod and Gun Club will again start the regular monthly schedule beginning Saturday at the clubhouse at Point San Quentin.

Social hour will start at 6 p.m. and the dinner will be served from 7 to 8 p.m., it was announced today. Price of the meal is $2 for adults and $1 for children 12 and under. Tickets may be obtained from club secretary Paul Ware or at the various bait shops in San Rafael.

Dinners chairman Ray Augusto reports that due to limited facilities, only 150 persons can be accommodated. Tickets should be purchased in advance as none will be sold at the door, Augusto said.

OPENS SATURDAY

Better Hunting Seen For Late Deer Season

California's 1963 late deer season will open Saturday with prospects that many areas will offer better hunting than in 1962.

There are three different areas in the late season, Department of Fish and Game reminded hunters, and urged nimrods to check the 1963 hunting regulations booklet for area boundaries.

The general late season area has hunting dates of Sept. 21 through Nov. 3, with a bag limit of one buck, forked-horn or better. The season in the northwestern area will be Sept. 21 through Nov. 3, with a bag limit of two bucks, forked-horn or better. The season in northeastern California will be Sept. 21 through Oct. 13 with a bag limit of one buck, three points or better.

Most deer will be in good condition with hard antlers by the opener, and herds are expected to be scattered because of the plentiful supply of food and water.

Fire hazards will be very high in all grassy and forested areas, and extreme caution is urged. Also, campfire permits are necessary in all national forests.

Hunters are urged to obtain permission from property owners before entering private lands to hunt.

College Students Shifting Offices

College of Marin students have shuffled several student government offices for the current fall semester, it was announced today.

Meanwhile petition forms have been made available for nominating candidates for four class representatives, with elections set next week.

Paul Molinari of San Anselmo, elected vice president last May 23, resigned last week to accept appointment by the student executive council as parliamentarian.

Named vice president was David Lehman of Corte Madera, who had been elected public relations commissioner.

To the public relations post was named Rich Coburn of Fairfax, former Tower Times editor.

The next political activity will be election of freshman men's representative, freshman women's representative, sophomore men's representative, and sophomore women's representative, said Coburn.

First to return a filled-out petition is Leslie Davis of San Rafael, running for freshman women's representative.

All petitions are to be returned to counselor John F. Gillin's office by 5 p.m. next Monday. There will be an assembly in Olney Hall at noon the next day, to be addressed by all candidates. The election will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sept. 25 and 26 on the brick steps of Harlan Hall.

Wedding Set Stolen

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mr. and Mrs. William Marcus of Mill Valley enjoyed an all too brief visit with their son-in-law Navy Undersecretary Paul B. (Red) Fay and his wife, the former Anita Marcus of Washington, D.C. The Fays were entertained at a brunch Friday attended only by family members and given by Mr. and Mrs. Marcus at their home.

It was a gay three days for Paul and Anita. They attended the San Francisco Opera opening Friday night and the Tiffany Ball at the San Francisco Museum of Art, which followed. Anita wore a lovely blue and silver brocade full length gown and a matching head band. They were seated with a table of old friends, including the Thomas Sullivans, George Popes and John Vietors.

The Fays attended the wedding of his young relative, Dorothy Fay, and Hamilton (Tony) Robinson Sunday afternoon at Our Lady of the Woodside Church in Portola Valley. The ceremony was followed by a reception in the gardens of the Woodside home of Dorothy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Mein. Dorothy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Fay of San Francisco. Here for the wedding and reception were Tony's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Robinson of Washington, D.C. Honor To A Great Lady

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Ernest A. Evans of Mill Valley will be honored by her many friends in Marin at a tea to be given by the Mill Valley Community Church Club.

It will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. in the parish hall of the church.

CONGRATULATIONS will be due Letitia Evans for many things in addition to having reached her 90th milestone, for she looks back on a life of leadership and service in various fields.

Of cheerful disposition and quick wit, she is above all independent and personifies for many women an ideal of how to grow old with dignity and grace.

SHE LIVES alone in the same home she and her husband had built on Summit Avenue, Mill Valley, in 1906. Every five years since 1945 she has traveled alone to South Hadley, Mass., to attend the reunion of her graduating class at Mt. Holyoke College. In 1960 there were only three members, and the other two lived in Massachusetts. She was a member of the college's board of trustees for seven years.

TYPICAL of the esteem in which she is held is the recognition accorded her by the American Assn. of University Women. In 1957 a $500 international scholarship was named "The Letitia Evans Grant" by its donors, the Mill Valley Branch of the AAUW, of which she is a longtime member.

It was so named, the citation read, "To honor an educated woman making your influence felt through your service on the local, national and international level." It described her as "The very embodiment of the ideals and visions of the founders of the American Assn. of University Women."

Born on Sept. 7, 1873 in Troy, Ohio, Letitia Thomas attended the Philadelphia Woman's Medical College one year after graduating from Mt. Holyoke College. Then she married the Rev. Horace Tracy Pitkin, and she and her husband did missionary work in China for three years.

ONE SUMMER she returned to Ohio with her two-year-old son, Horace Collins Pitkin, who was an orthopedic surgeon on the staff of the St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco until his death in 1959. While in this country she received word that her husband had been beheaded during the Boxer uprising.

Six years later she was married to Ernest A. Evans, a manufacturer's agent in charge of the West Coast and the Orient for his company. They came to Mill Valley to live in 1906.

IN 1916 SHE helped to organize and was the first chairman of the Chinese YWCA in San Francisco's Chinatown, and for a many years she was on the board of the International Institute in San Francisco, which deals with problems of the foreign-born.

For most of the 10 years Mrs. Evans subsequently spent in New York while her son was at Yale. She was a member of the foreign division of the New York national board of YWCA.

A national leader in the missionary work of the Congregational Church, she was a member and twice president of the woman's board of missions for the Pacific in San Francisco. While in New York she was a member of the prudential committee of the American Board of Commissioners for foreign missions.

AFTER HER return to Mill Valley in 1929 Mrs. Evans took a leading part in local civic and cultural affairs. She was on the board of freeholders which was responsible for setting up the city manager government in Mill Valley and participated in organizing the Mill Valley Chapter of the League of Women Voters. She was one of the early presidents of the Mill Valley Forum and has been a worker for the Marin Music Chest.

MRS. EVANS has served many years on the board of trustees of the Mill Valley Community Church and was a member of the executive board of the Mill Valley Branch of the AAUW and a member of the Outdoor Art Club.

WIDOWED in 1940, Mrs. Evans took on further responsibilities during World War II when she worked with the American Red Cross and participated in the OPA food rationing program.

Today Letitia Evans, proud grandmother of two grandsons and four great grandchildren, is as vital and full of plans for the future as ever."

Switches Add Style

Quick switches add style to milady's locks. The latest Charles of the Ritz hair pieces, for example, attach to an elasticized ribbon for jiffy placement. The switches give hair fuller body and even make short hair seem longer.

Golden Touch

There's a golden touch, genuine, to much of the new jewelry. The Jewelry Industry Council reports growing popularity of gold, whether 14K, 18K, even 20K. Many of the new pieces feature traditional leaf, flower or geometric patterns, but some plain gold is being shown also in modern design using Florentine, brushed or polished gold for added effect.

Dedini-Haas Wedding Held In Fresno

St. John's Cathedral in Fresno was the setting for the nuptials of Kathleen Haas and Leroy Dedini on Aug. 27. Attending from Marin were her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Haas of Inverness.

Following the wedding a reception was given in the garden of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Haas of Fresno.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dedini of Ripon. He attended Modesto State College and is studying toward a master's degree in biochemistry at Fresno State College, where the bride is taking graduate work in education. She attended Le Pensionnet Le Manior in Switzerland and Fresno City College.

After the wedding the couple took a trip to Canada, before returning to resume studies at Fresno State College.

Bringing Up Baby®

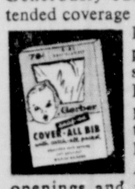
HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

First baby about to make his (or her) debut? When you pack for that joyous trip to the hospital, apart from the basic necessities for you and baby, here are a few minor necessities that will stand you in good stead:

- A simple cosmetic kit, to indulge in a bit of luxury primping that may be by-passed when you get home.
- Note paper and a ball point pen, to dash off those "thank-you" notes you may not have time for later.
- Some small change for papers, magazines, stamps, etc.

•

New cover story for cuties: Gerber Snap-On Cover-All Bibs. Generously cut, they give extended coverage from shoulder to lap . . waterproof protection from spills and splashes. Roomy catch-all pocket across bottom snares droplets and driplets. Adjustable neck openings and underarm snaps make for easy on-and-offing. New Gerber Cover-All Bibs are made of soft, white polyvinyl film that's easily wipeable and machine-washable. Decorated with a cunning kitten and a brace of bunnies in pink, blue or yellow. Look for them at your favorite food store or supermarket.



•

Organization plan. Home at last, with a new love in your heart and no time on your hands. If you do a bit of pre-planning and organize your days in terms of baby's needs first and chores second, you'll fare beautifully. Household duties can usually wait—a little heart that needs you can't.

•

Solid start. Almost before you know it, your baby will be ready for cereal. Good starting point for this important step: Gerber Cereal Sixes. This handy, 6-in-1 package contains small-size boxes for pint-size appetites. Rice Cereal, Barley, Mixed Cereal, High Protein Cereal and 2 Oatmeal make up this nice-to-eat sextette. Flavors are ever so delicate, the texture dreamy-smooth. And, they're enriched with iron, calcium and B-vitamins. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Disregard Book Rules When Trying To Make Slam Contract

Everybody knows how to play Q-2 opposite A-K-6. You win the first trick with the queen, because this leaves you in position to win the next two tricks with the ace and king.

Life would be very simple if you could always depend on the book rules to work.

In this case South relied on the rule and won the first trick in dummy with the queen of hearts. This cost him his slam contract.

THREE ROUNDS

He drew three rounds of trumps, cashed the ace of clubs, and gave up a club trick. Back came the jack of diamonds, covered by the queen and king, and won by dummy's ace.

South ruffed a club, but the suit failed to break. He cashed the top hearts, discarding a diamond from dummy, ruffed a diamond in dummy, and ruffed another club.

Now dummy's last club was good, but there was no way to reach it. South had to lose a diamond trick, and the slam was down the drain.

ADDITIONAL ENTRY

South can make the contract by keeping an additional entry in dummy. He wins the first heart trick with the king, draws three rounds of trumps, cashes the ace of clubs and gives up a club.

East returns a diamond to dummy's ace, and South ruffs a club. South leads a heart to dummy's queen (saved there for just this purpose), and ruffs another club.

Now South cashes the ace of hearts to discard the low diamond from dummy. And it is then easy to win the last two tricks in dummy with the last trump and the last club.

The point is that you must manage your entries not merely for the sake of a suit but for the sake of the hand as a whole.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 17, the 260th day of 1963 with 105 to follow.

The moon is new. The morning star is Jupiter. The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn and Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1796, President George Washington delivered his farewell address and warned the American people to steer clear of foreign alliances.

In 1787, the United States Constitution was completed at the Constitutional Convention and signed by a majority of the 55 delegates.

In 1962, nine new U.S. astronauts were named to train for moon flights.

A thought for the day — Thomas A. Edison said: "There is no substitute for hard work."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Much Research Being Done In U.S. To Determine Cause Of Palsy

VAN DELLEN

The cause of Parkinsonism (shaking palsy) is not known. But considerable research has been done during the last decade in an attempt to determine why the malady develops. Some authorities believe it is inherited. But no one is quite certain what the hereditary factor is because the typical shaking of the hands and head, along with stiffness of the muscles, do not become noticeable for at least 30 years after birth.

Dr. George G. Spellman of Sioux City, Iowa, was consulted by a 36-year-old woman with the disorder. He was able to trace it back three generations. The great grandfather had eight children, three of whom had Parkinsonism. One was the patient's grandmother, who had four children, three of whom were afflicted, including the mother of the patient. The 36-year-old victim was the first of nine children to manifest characteristic symptoms. Later, a younger brother was stricken.

MEANWHILE, chemists have been testing the blood, excretions, and brains of hundreds of individuals with the disease for possible deficiencies or clues. Certain findings suggest an inborn error of metabolism; in this condition the individual is born with a shortage of certain chemicals or enzymes.

Additional research has shown a deficiency of dopamine, serotonin, or magnesium in some persons with tremor or rigidity. All of these substances have an effect of some sort on the nervous system and, as a result, these clues are worth investigating. Furthermore, some of the drugs that lessen tremor also alter the concentration of these chemicals.

THE COMBINATION of Parkinsonism and hardening of the arteries in oldsters may be coincidental. Nevertheless, many physicians continue to blame arteriosclerosis for shaking, rigid muscles in the older age group, particularly when these symptoms are widespread. But the majority of those with Parkinsonism are between 40 and 60 years of age and it is not reasonable to accuse narrowed arteries.

Many of these persons had encephalitis during the flu epidemics occurring between 1917 and 1927. Thus the foundation for shaking palsy was laid when they were young. And, to make the issue more confusing, we might add that rigidity and tremor can be controlled in selected patients by destroying a pea-sized area in the brain. What causative role this little spot plays in the disease is not known.

(Dr. Van Dellen will send leaflet on Parkinsonism if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

Business Spotlight On Retail Sales

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Retail sales will command the center of the stage the rest of this month and the first half of October.

How much consumers buy, and especially what they buy, will give a strong clue to the strength of the current economic upturn.

Unexpectedly high personal spending helped moderate the last recession. Revival of purchases of durable goods, particularly big ticket ones, such as household appliances, give the present upturn a new lease on life when it seemed to be faltering a year ago.

Sales have withstood the summer lull. If they show vigor with the coming of fall, merchants and dealers can count on new dollar records the rest of the year.

Manufacturers can then plan production schedules with a more helpful eye on the chances of the longest and strongest since World War II.

Auto and appliance sales have been unusually strong for several months. At the moment car sales may be turning weak, while the makers are bringing out the new models. How these catch on should be apparent next month.

Appliance sales have close ties with home building. Construction of housing units, especially apartments, has been strong this year. Furnishing them has given a boost to appliance, furniture and similar sales.

If this continues through the fall, the industries will be content to take the usual winter season of slack construction and skimpier furnishings sales in stride.

But there is also a large replacement market for appliances and furnishings. This too has been seeing a modest boom.

Consumers have been willing to spend, and to take on monthlly payments, for new appliances or for more of them. They apparently have been confident present good times were here to stay for a time.

Economists will watch this market closely. When consumers start to retrench one of their first targets is such big ticket items.

FDR Didn't Want To Hear About Indochina

By STEWART HENSLEY

WASHINGTON (UPI)—"I don't want to hear any more about Indochina!"

The speaker was not — as you might imagine from reading today's headlines—John F. Kennedy.

Rather it was Franklin D. Roosevelt. The time was more than a score of years ago. And the exasperated statement was aimed at Roosevelt's military chiefs who had been pressing him for policy guidance on the area.

Paradoxically, the authority for the quotation is Dean Rusk, then an obscure Army colonel in the Far East and now, as secretary of state, the man with prime responsibility for U. S. policy in South Viet Nam.

Rusk and his present chief, President Kennedy, sometimes must feel like echoing Roosevelt's remark. But history and the march of communism in Asia have hemmed them in and demanded agonizing decisions.

The United States is deeply committed to continue supporting South Viet Nam in a frustrating campaign, fought in the jungles and rice paddies against elusive Communist guerrillas.

American officials believe a Communist victory could open the floodgates for a Red tide which would eventually engulf the remainder of Southeast Asia.

The U.S. commitment in Viet Nam involves 1.5 million dollars a day in military and economic aid and 14,000 American troops advising and fighting alongside South Vietnamese.

As sometimes happens, the ally with whom the United States must work is a dictator whose repressive actions against his own people frequently embarrasses Washington.

The United States has publicly assailed the violent attacks by the secret police of President Ngo Dinh Diem's Catholic-dominated government on Buddhist temples and the arrests of thousands of monks, nuns and students.

But how much farther can Washington go?

Withdrawal of U.S. support might result in chaos and Communist victory. Diem is a stubborn man and some officials believe he would rather die than give in to U.S. demands for political reform, which he insists are impossible as long as the fighting continues.

French President Charles de Gaulle's lofty remarks about letting Viet Nam settle its own problems have annoyed U.S. officials.

The French held Indochina, consisting of what is now Viet Nam, Cambodia and Laos, from 1859 until World War II. When the Germans overran France, the puppet Vichy regime surrendered the area to the Japanese.

Faced with defeat, the Japanese gave Viet Nam its independence. The French returned to encounter a militant resistance movement headed by Communist Ho Chi-ming, who had been installed by the Japanese.

For eight years, with heavy military aid from the United States, the French tried to pacify the country. The fall of one of their major garrisons, Dien Bien Phu, in the spring of 1954, led to the Geneva agreements. They ended the fighting—and French rule in Indochina.

Viet Nam was divided at the 17th parallel, with the Communists holding the north and a French puppet, Emperor Bao Dai, in control of the south. His prime minister was Diem, the present president.

The emperor, who preferred the Riviera to Saigon, soon gave way to a republic headed by Diem. He started from scratch to build a government.

With U.S. military and economic aid ordered by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Diem during the next five years made enough progress to attract the all-out attention of the North Vietnamese Reds. With moral and material support from Red China Communist guer- Red China, Communist guerrillas began the long and bitter effort to overthrow Diem.

The United States increased its support for Diem's regime as the Red attacks mounted. When President Kennedy assumed office in 1961, some of his advisors favored direct American mliitary intervention to turn the tide.

But after a survey by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, then a special presidential adviser and now chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, it was decided the better course would be to supply more military aid. It also was agreed to send junglewise U.S. Army Rangers into South Viet Nam as "instructors."

These forces, many of whom have engaged in actual combat when necessary—have increased from 2,000 in January, 1962, to more than 14,000 at present.

In 1955, when Diem was consolidating his precarious hold on South Viet Nam, he ruthlessly suppressed military units of various religious sects attempting to take advantage of the chaos.

After the Taylor mission, however, Diem agreed to various political, economic and social reforms which the Kennedy administration felt were necessary to win popular support for the anti-communist war among the South Vietnamese.

He made some gestures, but they fell short of Washington's hopes. Even so, steady progress in the anti-Communist fight heartened Kennedy and his aides until the sudden attacks on Buddhists focused world attention on the somewhat less than perfect democracy in Saigon.

While Buddhist complaints stemmed originally from alleged discrimination by the Catholic minority, their protests soon became the focus for long-smouldering discontent among intellectuals and other Vietnamese elements.

The Kennedy administration is well aware of the shortcomings of Diem and his government. It is also aware that his actions have tarnished the image of his chief supporter, the United States.

It would like him to get rid of his brother and chief adviser, Ngo Dinh Nhu, who heads the secret police and is blamed for the excesses of the regime. Washington would like to see political and social reforms.

There is some doubt, however, just how much pressure Washington can exert — even with the leverage of its massive military aid—without precipitating a break with Diem which would benefit only the Communists.

This is the question Kennedy and his top advisers are wrestling with at this point.

Incorporation Goal Nears

With the signing by Northwestern Pacific Railroad and Fred G. Zelinsky, total assessed land valuation now represented on the Tiburon incorporation petition has jumped to $1,460,000, according to Elva Paske, Tiburon Incorporation Committee chairman.

The required goal of one million dollars, representing one-fourth of the total land value of the proposed city, was passed in late August. To be on the safe side, the committee is hoping to reach two million dollars, Mrs. Paske said.

The next step is a series of public hearings before the board of supervisors. The matter will then be put to a vote.

Car Parts Found; Four Are Jailed

Four youths, spotted sneaking through the used car lot of DeLong Chevrolet Inc. at 550 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, were jailed by San Rafael police Sunday on charges of vehicle tampering and petty theft.

Found 25 feet behind their car, according to police, were $174 worth of batteries, carburetors and a distributor.

Held on $583.50 bail apiece, to appear in municipal court Friday, were: Louis Lawrence Paolini, 19, of De Norte Avenue, San Anselmo; Allan Carroll Osborn, 20, of 15 Octavia Street, San Rafael; Thomas Crowther, 18, of 12 Cedar Avenue, Kentfield, and Thomas Dean Scahill, 20, of 131 Bolinas Road, Fairfax.

'Slave Auction' Raises $100 For Exec Unit Funds

About $100 was raised by a "slave auction" by students of College of Marin at a campus gathering in the noon hour yesterday, Davis Campbell of Inverness, student president, announced.

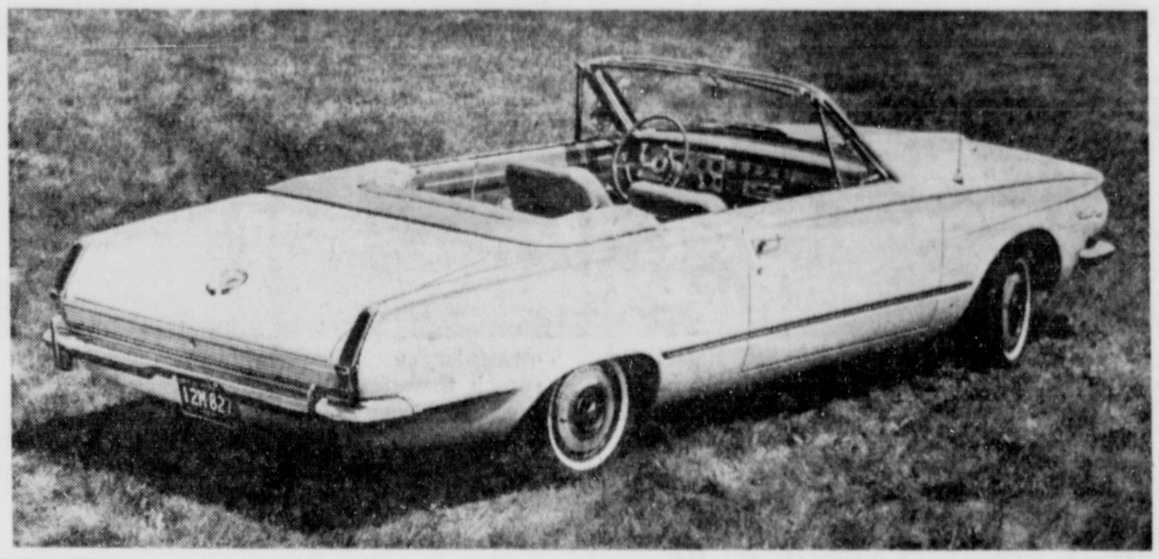
On the "auction block" were put 53 football players, two song leaders and two yell leaders.

Bids ran from small change for some "slaves" to several dollars for others, said Campbell. None of the buyers got to keep any of the "slaves."

The event was a part of "kickoff week," leading up to the first football game of the season against Menlo College in Kentfield Saturday. The money was put in the student executive council general fund.

People earning less than $7,500 a year bought four out of every five life insurance policies issued in 1962, the Institute of Life Insurance reports.

PLYMOUTH SPORT FURY HARDTOP—Plymouth cars for 1964 have increased head room, improved driver vision and increased over-all length. The rear track is two inches wider than on 1963 models. Engine options include a new 426-inch V-8. Models will go on display Sept. 20 at Doug Dicker Chrysler-Plymouth, San Rafael, and at James L. Walker, Inc., Mill Valley.



VALIANT—One of five body styles, the Valiant convertible shares several new features in the line. In the rear, the most noticeable change is in the tail lights, which are vertical and follow the contour of rear-quarter panels. Available for the first time in Valiant are a floor-mounted four-speed manual shift synchronized in all forward positions, and differential to minimize rear-wheel spinning. Valiants will be shown Sept. 20 at Doug Dicker Chrysler-Plymouth, San Rafael, and at James L. Walker, Inc., Mill Valley.

CHRYSLER 300-K—Reclining front seat, adjustable front seat headrests and an adjustable steering wheel are among new features to be found in many of the 1964 Chrysler cars. This 300-K sports convertible also has a center console-mounted automatic transmission gear selector. It will be shown next Friday at James L. Walker, Inc., Mill Valley, and Doug Dicker Chrysler-Plymouth, San Rafael.

STUART BURT INSURANCE AGENCY, previously at 1640 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon, moved yesterday to larger quarters, combining space with Verne Hockett Insurance Agency at 244 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

Burt and Hockett will conduct their businesses separately but are combining the office staff. It's a trial run — may lead into a formal merger later.

He Never Heard Of Neither Rain Nor . . .

TUNBRIDGE WELLS, England (UPI) — Postman Anthony Mark, 22, found it impossible to deliver every letter he carried during the past four years because he just "never had time."

Magistrate Rupert Gunnis yesterday fined Mark $56 for failing to deliver 170 letters and packets and for missing "whole streets."

Polio Vaccine Now Available In San Rafael

Oral polio vaccine is now available at the Marin County Health Department general clinic Monday through Friday, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, announced today.

Old E Street School Alive With Specialists' Activity

San Rafael's E Street School may be near abandonment but you can't tell it by a visit there these days.

The old school is alive with activity and packed with personnel.

Pupils are in classrooms, San Rafael City Schools specialists are in makeshift offices in the auditorium, and city personnel occupy the basement.

For the 11 school specialists and six staff members, the result is bedlam. They are working in offices with partitions of bookcases from the old county library.

Specialists and staff members formerly occupied space at the school now being used for the temporary installation of six classes from Glenwood School and two special education retarded classes.

If the voters approve a $3,300,000 elementary school district bond issue Oct. 8, part of the funds will be used to expand the central office building on San Rafael High School property to provide offices for these persons. The bond issue also includes $198,000 for building a six - classroom school for special education for physically and mentally handicapped children.

A second bond issue of $670,000 to build multi - purpose rooms at nine elementary schools will also be on the Oct. 8 ballot. So will a proposal for a 50-cent increase in the operating tax limit of San Rafael High School District (now $1.25 per $100 assessed valuation), effective next year. Each of the three proposals will be decided individually.

If the bond issues are approved by two-thirds vote, the elementary school district can sell the bonds as its legal capacity permits. Only about one million dollars of bonds could be sold next year, as that would bring the district to its limit of bonded indebtedness.

Suitcase, Clothes Reported Missing

Theft of a suitcase, containing $75 worth of clothes, from the Travelers Hotel, Third Street and Tamalpais Avenue, San Rafael, was reported to San Rafael police Sunday night.

Viola Myrtle Black of 890 Penny Royal Lane, Terra Linda, told police she left the suitcase outside a telephone booth at about 10 p.m. It was missing after she completed her call.
